

nation, the immortal soul of Frances E. Willard passed gently from its earthly body to the glorious place of Everlasting Life, and the uncrowned queen received from her Father, the King of all the Universe, her crown of glory.