

1859.]

ADVERTISEMENTS.

117

ENGLISH SHOE STORE,

NEW BRICK PREMISES.

WM. G. COOMBS,

Successor to the late R. Gohegan,

No. 5 Granville Street, Halifax, N. S.,

Opposite Billing's London House.

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN BOOTS, SHOES, AND RUBBERS.

Always on hand, the best quality of Goods of London and Paris manufacture.

Provincial and Export Wholesale Dealers can be supplied to any extent, and at very low prices. I would respectfully invite them to call and look through the sales rooms, and examine for themselves.

I would also call the attention of the Country and Shore Retail Customers to the Goods adapted for their benefit. Special care given to their wants. Good, substantial, and very cheap! They are all made under the Subscriber's own inspection and special direction.

In connection with this establishment is an apartment, handsomely furnished, expressly for Ladies to fit themselves.

ENGLISH SHOE STORE,

OLD BRICK STORE,

ESTABLISHED 1832,

No. 14 Duke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Known for the last 30 years as Gohegan's.

No Credit, and only One Price.

WM. G. COOMBS.