

TO THE
King's most excellent Majesty.

THE
M E M O R I A L
OF
P E T E R L I V I U S,

Your Majesty's Chief-Justice of your Province of Quebec, in North-America,

Most humbly sheweth,

THAT by your Majesty's most gracious acceptance of your Memorialist's dutiful, though poor services, he was appointed by your Majesty your Chief-Justice in your said Province.

That your Memorialist, to the best of his power, has discharged the duties of the said office, faithfully, diligently, and, as he humbly trusts, unblameably.

That Sir Guy Carleton, then Governor of the said Province, did take upon himself, though not invested with any such authority, to amove your Memorialist from his said office, without assigning
