

Object confined to the burial of a deceased Soldier or Sailor who has served under the Colors, and who has died in necessitous circumstances.

(c) It shall be within the power of the Executive (in order to conform to the rites and ceremonies of all creeds or religions), to make provisions for interment of any soldier or sailor of the British Empire.

Necessary
Expenditure

Protection Against Imposition

3. The Fund is not to be used in any way as a compromise towards the elaboration of any interment where there are other means of meeting the expenditure, but may be used to any extent necessary to attain its primary object in its fullest meaning consistent with the requirements of the case.

Means of Revenue

4. The source of revenue will be by membership fees and by collection boxes with an appeal thereon to past and present members of the Services, and to those agreeably disposed towards the Fund. Such boxes will be distributed in naval and military canteens, armouries, military clubs, institutes and barracks. The source of revenue may, also at any time, be augmented in any way the Executive proposes, providing it is consistent with the dignity of the Fund.
