UPTURN IN CORN AFTER DECLINE

Preparations Under Way to Send Huge Food Ship. ments to Austria.

Chicago, Nov. 19 .- Definite announcement of preparations under way to send huge shipments of foodstuffs to Austria helped to bring about a sharp upturn today in the corn market, after prices had undergone a material decline. The close was strong, 1%c to 3c net higher, with December $1.30% to $1.33½, and January $1.32½ to $1.32½. Oats gained %c to 1½c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 20c lower.

At first the bears had a decided advantage in the corn market, owing largely to a prevalent opinion that the 13c advance witnessed during the last week was more than sufficient as long as export buying remained merely prospective. Considerable disposition was also manifested to doubt whether the food shortage in Gamany had not been somewhat avarders in the corn manifested to doubt whether the food shortage in Gamany had not been somewhat avarders. ment of preparations under way to send manifested to doubt whether the food shortage in Garmany had not been somewhat overdrawn. Later, however, gossip became current that recent liberal buying of flour on government account was part of a comprehensive plan for feeding Europe. Then the market made a swift ascent. Highest prices of the day accompanied word that food relief from the United States for Austria would soon total 250,000 tons.

Oats swayed with corn.—Talk of improved seaboard demand for oats was a distinct bullish factor.

Huge arrivals of hogs here weakened Huge arrivals of hogs here weakened provisions. The market subsequently rallied somewhat, however, because of the grain bulge.

With deliveries of about 650 cattle on the exchange yesterday, for the most part of very inferior quality, there was a good strong demand for good butchers and good feeders at prices holding steady with Monday's advance. Not in a long time has the general quality of the cattle offering been of such poor quality and real good quality cattle are selling well. There were no outstanding features on the exchange yesterday. Sheep and lambs are holding steady at the advance, the lamb market especially reflecting strength as shown by some of the sales from $15.10 to $15.25. The market is holding steady, but receipts are light and we will have to wait until today to see what the quotations really are With deliveries of about 650 cattle

Personal Market Note.
On the exchange yesterday general regret was expressed at the long-continued illness of ex-Ald. John. Dunn and a former active member of the exchange and prominent live stock man. It is gratifying, however, to know that Mr. Dunn is now convalescing and good hopes are entertained for his speedy recovery and complete restoration to health.
