INTERMEDIATE CONTEST WON BY HAMILTON SIX

McMaster Neglected the Checking in Final Period and Fell Behind.

Intermediate hockey is not a drawing attraction. This was ably demonstrated when Hamilton and McMaster University staged their first middle series game at the Arena last night. The boys provided a fair article of hockey and it was close until the final period.

The local league, before the war, had eight teams from the city and one from Paris, Enlistments broke it up, but an effort is to be made during the winter months to enlarge the league's scope for next year. The local officers are: President, John Leishman; first vice-president, C. Collington; second vice-president, H, Taylor; executive committee, F. Wright, M. Adams, Burton and Tapsley.

Series of Interval probably feature their training.

Mike Kelley Sticks

With St. Paul Club

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—Mike Kelly again will manage the St. Paul Club of the American Association, it was officially announced here today. Kelly delayed signing a contract because he had received an offer to manage an American League Club. The latter offer was not accepted, it is understood, because Kelly could not obtain permission to make certain trades.
