Good Progress in Planting and Lumber Milling, With a Few Words on Christmas Time.

Rev. C. T. Cocking, 266. Caritontreet. Toronto, has received a letter from Rev. W. W. Colpits of Ocean Beach, Cuba, telling of the progress of the Canadian colony located there.

of the Canadian colony located there. The epistle reads:

Knowing that you take a great deal of interest in the Canadian colony here. I will give you some facts that may be found interesting.

The sawmill is now cutting lumber, and I saw a planer loaded on the wagon yesterday on its way to the mid, so that lumber, rough and planed, can now be had manufactured on the property. Lumber has arrived for completing the large hotel, and is now pleting the large hotel, and is now being hauled from the dock to the spot. The steamer now stops at Ocean beach at every trip, both in and out. A carpenter, who is using some of the lumber cut at the mill, told me that lumber cut at the mill, fold me that it is quite as good as the imported Georgian pine. Logs are plentiful.

There was quite a gathering at the hotel for Christmas dinner, and roast turkey and plum pudding, and all the usual accompaniments made it very cheerful. As experiences were related and plans discussed, a general hope-fulness pervaded the company, and iadies, the pioneering, as well as the gentlemen, saw a future for the colony. After tea the Social Club gave an entertainment of music, recitations and dialogs, which was much appreciated. The evening was splendid, the balmy air, the silver moonlight, the gentle plash of the waves on the beach, all characteristic of the tropics, made it a very pleasant experience, and it a very pleasant experience, and many of us could not but contrast this with the experiences of a year ago, and with what our friends write us of the present winter in Ontario.
