Overcoats

Are given special attention by us. Every variation or modification of style that men of taste are likely to care for is fully exemplified here, You can count on seeing the newest thought in every feature of men's attire at this store.

One feature of all our clothing is its stylish lines. Whether full back or fitted to the form, every overcoat will be found clean-cut. and nobby. And the little things about them are all attended tothe things that are so easy to skip, and that annoy the man of taste when they are missing.

The secretary, Prof. G. M. Wrong, read the annual report, which stated that they had been able to add a donation of $100 to their capital. There had been 35 boys in the Home on an average, which may be accommodated. The building was not large enough for more than should be accommodated. The building was not large enough for more than 30. It would be advisable to get a larger and better Home further uptown. Vagrancy among the boys had almost disappeared.

The treasurer's report showed that the total receipts for the year were $3826.97, leaving a balance on hand of $108.34. The receipts were made up of the City Council's grant of $300, the Ontario Government grant of $222, while the remainder came from the boys' earnings and public subscriptions.

Napanee, Nov. 23.—Convict Troy was brought into court this morning for sentence. When asked by His Lordship Chief Justice Meredith if he had anything to say; a sentence of death should not be passed upon him, he said:

"My Lord, I cannot have anything to say; a sentence of damnation has already been passed upon me."

The Judge then pronounced the usual words, sentencing Troy to be hanged on Friday, Jan. 14.

Toy seemed to be satisfied with the death sentence, and before leaving the court asked that Mr. Riddell, the Crown prosecutor, call upon him. It is supposed troy has further particulars to give of the murder.

The verdict gives general satisfaction here, and the hope is expressed on all sides that the sentence will be carried out. Yesterday afternoon John Hughes was continued in a charge of having having hugger.
