Business for practically all lines of cat-tle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday held about steady with Monday's big re-ceipts and decline of anywhere from 25c to 50c per cwt. Trade was slow, all right nough, but there was a brighter feeling. and pretty much everything was cleaned up, except a few lots of extra heavy, up, except a few lots of extra heavy, choice steers, bought at high prices, and on which the packing house buyers and commission houses failed to reach an agreement. They were extra choice, but too heavy for the local trade, except at a lower quotation. The run was very light, and pretty well cleared up.

Sheep and lambs were weak, and hogs were steady at the lower level—$15.50, fed and watered.

Market Notes.

Eddie Zeagman, a member of the firm of C. Zeagman & Sons, commission salesmen, was on the exchange yesterday, after a delightful fortnight's honeymoon trip down the St. Lawrence and to eastern points, receiving the congratulations of his business associates.
