

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"Angel Face" Next Week.
"Angel Face" is the title of what is claimed to be Victor Herbert's greatest musical comedy, which comes to the Princess next week from the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York. The book is by Harry B. Smith, the lyrics by Robert B. Smith, and the fortuitous assembly of the whole by George W. Lederer, who has not been heard of locally as a producer since his sensational success "Madame Sherry." In the name part is a new kind of the manager of many stage discoveries, without a stage name, and Manager Lederer asks Torontonians to come to his assistance and give the girl a stage name, preferably one complementing the title of the play. So far no adequate name has been found for her and she retains the name by which she is known in Lima, Ohio—Marguerite Zender.

One lyric of the writer of the jingles in the production, said to be especially sugary, rhythmically, is entitled "I Might Be Your Once-In-A-While," a number so sticky that the entire country is already stuck on it.

"His Chinese Wife." An Oriental-American drama played by an all-star cast, will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre for the week starting Monday, April 19. This play, taken from the story of "The Unwanted One," by Forrest Halsey and Clara Beranger, is described as a drama of morals and manners.

"Revelations of a Wife." At a mortal's birth the fairies are supposed to leave some particular gift as a present to the person, yet to grow to manhood or womanhood, it may be the power of making money, the ability to dominate throngs with eloquence, a charm that brings love from all that meet it, or an ambition that always will be satisfied. In the case of the Zancigs, whose mysterious powers have enthralled thousands, the fairies undoubtedly left the strange gift of second sight, which has never been fully understood, to its existence has been admitted for centuries. You cannot go so far back in history that you cannot find record of these strange individuals, possessing such weird and mysterious powers. The Zancigs are coming with "The Revelations of a Wife" to the Grand, and will answer questions from any one in the audience. The past, present and future is an open book, unfolded to their eyes that see beyond our human understanding.

At Loew's Next Week.
The most startling revelation of faith in the hereafter ever pictured is the central object of interest in D. W. Griffith's latest screen creation, "The Greatest Question," at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden next week. The original Bison City Four, a quartet of supreme excellence, headlines the vaudeville, which also includes Grazer and Lawlor, in an artistic revue of terpsichorean oddities; George Randall and company, in "Too Easy;" Johnny Woods, the ebony-hued ventriloquist; Caplane and Wells, "Fun in a Restaurant;" and Burns and Garry, mirth and dance originalities.

Dorothy Dalton—Strand.
With Dorothy Dalton playing three distinct roles and the scene of the action varying from the upper stratum of Parisian life to the Indian jungle, "Black and White," the picture coming to the Strand Theatre next week, promises novel entertainment. Miss Dalton portrays the faithful, retiring wife of an unreasonably jealous husband, a fragile invalid, and the dashing adopted daughter of a French nobleman.

The pictures of the Prince of Wales' tour for next week will show the scenes of rousing enthusiasm in the west from Edmonton and Calgary to the coast, including many of the most enterprising centres and most beautiful places in the prairie provinces and in British Columbia.

Today the best showings will be made at the Strand of Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars," and Charlie Chaplin in "Carmen."

Elman at Massey Hall.
Interest in the recital to be given by the celebrated violinist, Mischa Elman, in Massey Hall on Tuesday evening is increased by the announcement that his sister, Miss Liza Elman, will also appear. They will play the "Kontzky Sonata." Mr. Elman needs no introduction to Toronto audiences. Each visit here has added new admirers. Mr. Elman has concerts scheduled in all the large cities and return dates have been arranged in many of them. Notably is this the case in Chicago where Orchestra Hall proved too small to accommodate the large number wishing to hear him on his first visit there this season. Seats for Tuesday evening are now on sale.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat
Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everybody should have now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in over-eating kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Grand Opera at Royal.
That Montreal is in full accord with both New York and Chicago is evidenced by the demonstrations that have been accorded the artists of the New York Metropolitan and Chicago Opera companies during the past week when at each performance the different artists were repeatedly honored. Speaking of John O'Sullivan, the Irish tenor, The Montreal Star says: "The picture is always the thing with Mr. O'Sullivan, and he knows how to hold the eye and how to keep it refreshed. His singing is gracious and at all times fervent. When he sang 'Angie Adorable,' the words seemed to come from the heart as well as the head."

These are but a few of the many notables who will next week repeat in Toronto the triumphs that have been theirs on both sides of the water, especially in New York and Chicago, where for three years or more they have been in constant demand.

The following operas have been selected for presentation in Toronto and will be sung just as they were during the regular season in the two metropolises of the United States, with the same identical casts and productions: Monday evening, "La Tosca," Tuesday evening, "Carmen," Wednesday matinee "Faust," Wednesday evening "Thais," Thursday evening "La Tosca," Friday evening "Thais," Saturday matinee "Carmen," Saturday evening two operas will be given, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci."

The evening performances will begin sharp at eight while the matinee will be at two sharp and no one will be seated during the action of the operas. Patrons are therefore warned to be seated before the curtains rise.

Martinique at Royal Alexandra.
Walter Hast, the eminent English producer, whose productions of "The Little Brother" and "The Master of Ballantrae" are so favorably remembered by local playgoers, brings to the Royal Alexandra Theatre the week of April 19th, still another notable presentation. This time he has chosen for the scene of his play, the romantic isles of the French West Indies, and "Martinique," the name of the romance, carries with it all the fire, ardor, passions and pathos of those quaint peoples.

"The Bird of Paradise."
A story within a story dealing with the lives of two men and two women, one a man of high ideals, the other a creature of circumstance, who from a drunken, besotted beach-comber, is finally lifted out of the rut into which he has fallen thru the efforts of a young American girl, form the story written by Richard Walton Tully, "The Bird of Paradise." Oliver Morosco will offer this charming Hawaiian play at the Royal Alexandra Theatre for one week commencing Monday, April 26th, with usual matinees.

At the Star.
Artistic dancing is not the only accomplishment of Miss Nadine Grey, one of the many dancers in the "All Jazz Revue," which comes to the Star Theatre next week for the usual engagement commencing with a matinee on Monday. Tho' that would seem enough of a gift for any woman, Miss Grey adds to it, a marked ability for designing costumes, and all the gowns worn by her are from her own design, her ideas are carried out by the costumer, several of her designs have been copied by noted costumers and are used in the presentation of big Broadway productions.

Messrs. Irons and Clamage have arranged to have her design all the costumes to be worn in their three shows for next season.

"Everywoman" at the Regent.
Every person in Toronto is looking forward to next week at the Regent Theatre when "Everywoman," the great Paramount-Artcraft production, will be presented. The picture, with its theme, its gorgeous settings, is undoubtedly one of the finest achievements in the realm of motion picture entertainment. The fact that it will be preceded by a prologue, in which ten living characters will appear, makes it all the more interesting. Most elaborate indeed are the costumes to be worn by the young ladies. These were especially created and designed for the occasion by the Murray-Kay Co. and are the last word in creations of this character. Then too, a very fascinating musical accompaniment has been arranged by John Arthur, to be played by the famous Regent orchestra.

One has only to mention the names of Violet Hemming, Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Clara Horton, Bebe Daniels and others in the cast to immediately arouse unusual interest. In addition to the all star cast fifty of the most beautiful girls in America take part in the production. The performances will begin at 12.15, 2.40, 4.50, 6.55 and 9.15.

At Gayety Next.
A glance at the cast of James E. Cooper's big burlesque attraction which he calls "The Best Show in Town," which opens an engagement at the Gayety Theatre, beginning with the usual matinee, they are led to at once believe that instead of going to see a burlesque show, he or she is going to visit a real musical comedy revue. A glance at the personnel of the cast reveals Frank Hunter, Lew Lederer, Lynn Cantor, Flossie and Mabel McCleod, Virginia Ware, Margie Winters, Ralph Rockway, Charles Wesson, and Louise Pennel, under the personal supervision of Mr. Cooper.

Tyrone Power at Madison.
For the first half of the coming week there will be presented at the Madison Theatre the photo-dramatic sensation of the day, "The Great Shadow," with Tyrone Power in the principal part. The production is on a stupendous scale and takes rank with "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance."

ENTERTAINED VETERANS.
The Veterans of '66 Chapter, I.O. D.E., entertained the members of the Veterans of '66 Association on Thursday evening at Ingenood Ten Rooms on Spadina avenue. Miss Hornbrook, the regent, and Mrs. Hector, wife of the president, presided at the handsome table. In the double parlors, tables were arranged for a military euchre, and those of the guests who did not play cards enjoyed a chat around the grate fire. A delightful supper was served, after which the prizes were distributed. The evening was very much enjoyed by all present.

QUARTER CENTURY CLUB HELD ANNUAL DINNER.
The first annual meeting and dinner of the Timothy Eaton Quarter Century Club was held at the Carleton Hotel on Thursday evening, April 8, when 75 of the members enjoyed a musical program given by Mr. W. W. Moore and were also entertained by Mr. Clark, ventriloquist.

The president, Mr. R. P. Riches, was in the chair and expressed regrets for the absence of Sir John Eaton, Mrs. Timothy Eaton and Mr. Harry McGee, who are out of the city.

After a short business meeting the officers for 1920 were announced as follows: Hon. president, Sir John C. Eaton; hon. vice-presidents, Mr. H. McGee and Mrs. W. G. Dean; president, Mr. W. J. Bowman; vice-president, Mr. F. Bethel; treasurer, Mr. A.

London; secretary, Miss M. Taylor; executive, Miss S. Baldwin, Miss E. Diamond and Mr. W. J. Slinden.

The new president in thanking the members for his appointment, quickly outlined his plans for the coming year, which included social, educational and business matters.

Certificates of membership were presented by Mr. T. W. Miller, one of the employees of oldest standing, after which Mr. R. Y. Eaton gave a most interesting talk on times in the organization under Mr. Timothy Eaton's regime. He also spoke of Sir John Eaton's interest in the old associates and his appreciation of their services.

This club is the first of its kind organized in Canada and is composed of employees who have been in continuous service with the T. Eaton Co. Limited, for the period of 25 years and over. It is interesting to note that the membership is about 100, all of whom had been in personal touch with the late Mr. Timothy Eaton.

London, April 9.—Moscow wireless reports say the Finnish government is prepared to send delegates to Terijoki (on the Finnish-Russian frontier) on April 10, to negotiate a truce. The Soviet government announced its decision to accept Finland's proposal.

RESERVE DECISION ON DAYLIGHT SAVING.
The controllers had proposed discussing the question of daylight saving yesterday but it was decided to postpone the matter for two weeks.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES.
If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmanol (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises, should give this prescription a trial.
