In the eloquent and impressive way which is exclusively his own, the self-made man was holding forth on the subject upon which he was best informed, and always more or less interesting, to wit—himself and his manifold virtues. His audience was a poor old woman to whom he made a weekly dole, but none is too lowly to be instructed and edified, so the self-made man.

"Yes," he repeated, "all that I am made myself. How did I do it? Why I have had my nose to the grindstone for 34 years."

Granny Goodman fixed her eyes with awe upon the great man's nasal organ. "And you ain't wore it down yet," she said feelingly. "Law, what obstinate things them pimples are, to be sure!"

A man remarked that he came from a very large family. "How many are there of you?" he was asked. "Well, there were ten of us boys," he said, "and each one of us had a sister." "Good gracious!" exclaimed the other, "then there were twenty of you?" "No," said the boastful man, "eleven."

Go to any drug store and get an ounce of paraffin, about 75c. worth. Take it home and put it into a syrup made of 1-4 pint of hot water and four ounces of granulated sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

Close-up View Of Cuban Revolt

Grafters Said To Be Behind Revolutionists

Menocal Is Honest

American Contractors Said to Sympathize With Gomez in His Desire to Return to Office

Havana, Cuba, Mar. 16.—Never having seen a revolution, the opportunity to look over in Cuba was not to be neglected. But a Cuban revolution appears to resemble a regular revolution about as much as a Cubist drawing resembles a regular portrait. How many rebels there are nobody seems to know, but since the government papers are ready to start bonfires when a single prisoner is taken, and the commander of the army sends a despatch expressing profound regret when one of his soldiers is wounded in the arm, the armed force of the enemy must be insignificant. The fact that Gomez is in possession of Santiago, the second largest city on the island, indicates that he has many sympathizers, but the action of the United States in announcing that it will recognize no government that attains power through armed rebellion forebodes the Gomez revolt to failure. (Since the foregoing was written Gomez is reported to have been captured.) The English-speaking people in Havana regard it as an unpleasant joke. The English, for proclaiming personal moralities, and undoubtedly it has done a great deal to unsettle business.

Who Promoted the Rebellion?

Did Germany promote the Cuban revolution, as she fomented trouble in Mexico with a view of giving the United States pressing international problems on her own immediate borders? Mayhap, and again may not hap. Germany didn't need to promote a rebellion in Cuba. The Cubists are capable of promoting all their own rebellions. The being a rebellion promoter, by Cuba would be like taking a ham sandwich to a banquet. Government by revolution is about the only form of government into which the Cubans enter with any enthusiasm, and the more readily they become insubordinate. But negroes do as a rule play the part of the hired gun in a revolution, merely called in to do the dirty work. In this case the star is Jose Miguel Gomez, a Cuban educator, a statesman, and a man of letters. The authors of score and libretto are anonymous for the present. They may turn out to be Germans. The prevalent opinion among well-informed people in Havana is that they are American business men and exploiters who hate Menocal because he is clean and love Gomez because he attained eminence as a grafter in a land where graft is an avocation when it is not the goal of all effort.

THE CHIEF CHARM OF LOVELY WOMAN

Soft, Clear, Smooth Skin Comes With The Use of "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

NORAH WATSON, 86 Drayton Ave., Toronto, Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin-glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disagreeable rash, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using 'Fruit-A-Tives' for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without 'Fruit-A-Tives'."

is correct he must have had considerable credit, for he is supposed to have owned half a million dollars. He was president for four years, and by the estimate of the United States, the economy was able to save an amount estimated at $4,000,000 to $5,000,000. He was a man of great energy and initiative, and acquired a magnificent mansion, which promises to be his next permanent abode. Gomez, in fact, made his son a general in the army, and his son-in-law an admiral of the fleet. The Gomez party was defeated in a little more than four years ago by Dr. Menocal, a Cuban educator, a statesman, a progressive in ideas, but in the opinion of conciliatory men, he is an avocation in morals. He gave Cuba clean government, and therefore with many Cubans has been as popular as though he had given them smallpox.

When Bayamo Was Saved—Official.

At the election held last November, Menocal was opposed by Dr. Zayas, as head of the Liberals, and the nominee of Gomez, but the result of that election is not clear. The returns gave Menocal a plurality, but Gomez claimed that there had been fraud in two or three provinces. The issue was then referred to the Supreme Court. That street of awaiting the result, declared that Menocal had been elected by fraud and gathering his friends and supporters together he raised the flag of rebellion at Santiago. Since then there have been frequent and indecisive clashes between the government troops and the Gomez army. Desertions are common, and casualties on both sides, but communications are in the grand manner. Here is an extract from the report of Col. Belancourt, victor of the Battle of Bayamo, on Wednesday, February 27: "The army of the Gomez party, which was led by Captains Cabrales and Sique, Lieutenant Mirabel and their troops with a great deal of valor and without any wavering, arrived, and after fighting which lasted three hours, at noon, I have saved Bayamo." Mark well the date and the historic hour. Wednesday, February 27, 1917, A. D. at three o'clock in the afternoon. No more, no less.

BRITISH CLEAN UP THE WORLD'S WILDEST CITY

Port Said, Egypt, Feb. 29 (Correspondence)—When the war broke out Port Said held the reputation, as indeed it had held from time immemorial, of being the wildest city from a moral standpoint of any place on the face of the globe. Into this port the flotilla of ships of the underworld drifted from all parts of the universe. Here every type of vice imaginable was represented. But today, after 30 months of military rule, the "Sinkhole of the East" is well nigh a model city. The iron hand of the army having cleaned it up as no other power could have done. Something of the transformation which has been wrought was told to a correspondent of the Associated Press, who has been touring the east.

When the military first took hold of affairs in Port Said gambling, drinking and vice of all sorts were rampant. Letters which were intercepted by the censor showed that traffic in women was thriving. Now most of this has been stopped, military law enabling the authorities to deal with situations over which the civil courts had no control. That street of international notoriety, Race Babel, so named by its inhabitants, has ceased to thrive. The leader of the world's iniquity. Many of its vice leaders have been sent away from the country; certain forms of vice have been restricted. Drinking has been limited and it is impossible now to procure intoxicating liquors except between the hours of 1 and 8 in the afternoon and 6 and 9 in the evening.

After cleaning up has been largely in the hands of Lieut. Col. H. G. Elgood, acting under instructions from the commander-in-chief, Gen. Archibald Murray. Flogging is one of the most effective punishments used to meet the situation in Port Said, and it is no mispry statement that it is meted out by the military authorities. What less vigorous punishment would the average father, mother, brother or sister of the world suggest? Col. Elgood asks.

As a result of the measures instituted,

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Aching Feet Spread Out in a Bath of "TIZ"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead, take a "TIZ" bath. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, calluses and bunions. There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which put up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

Crime has decreased 50 per cent, and disease has dropped at least 40 per cent, according to the latest figures available. One of the most effective regulations put into force has been that relating to drink. By virtually eliminating drunkenness a great stride was made toward the suppression of crime and vice, much of which was the direct result of intemperance. There was a time early in the war when the authorities hesitated to let soldiers take their leave in Port Said, as much trouble resulted. Now, however, hundreds of Tommies are about the city on furlough all the time and are giving the officials no cause for worry.

One of the striking changes is in the lighting of the city, which is now in total darkness at night. The restrictions on lighting were put into effect because of the submarine menace, the lights of the port having furnished a beacon for the underwater boats, but the lack of lights has been a great help in the suppression of vice, as comparatively few people venture out into the darkened streets.

Other cities in Egypt have been cleaned up in the same manner as Port Said, one of the good results of the war so far as this country is concerned.

Self-Poise

Old Dave Skinner, a fisherman on the Cape Cod coast, was noted for mulling in a great deal of self-poisoning and economy of words. No one ever knew Old Dave to become in the least excited, nor did he ever waste a word.

One summer day he was rowing along in his boat when a dory containing six or six young summer people was capsized near him. Naturally there were screams and wild confusion, in the midst of which Dave rowed over to the scene of the disaster and said placidly to the young people who were clinging to the boat, screaming for help:

"Hadin't you better git in?"

TWO THOUSAND PAY HOMAGE TO THE HEROIC DEAD

Archdeacon Cody Calls For A New Canada As Their Monument

Women in Tears—Sad But Inspiring Service at St. Paul's, Toronto—75th Officers There

(Toronto Star.)

"In dying for Canada, they have recreated Canada—a new and more beautiful Canada. Nothing less would be worth the price they have paid," said Archdeacon Cody at St. Paul's church at the memorial service for Lieut.-Col. S. C. Beckett, O. C., and all other members of the 76th Battalion (Toronto's Own), who have fallen in battle.

Recently, 2,000 fellow-citizens of Toronto's dead heroes rose to their feet as the solemn strains of the "Dead March" in Saul rolled through the great chancel of the church. The notes of the last post rang out they paid their silent homage to the dead.

And again when the dirge—women wept outright when Canon Cody spoke of the loss Canada had sustained by the sacrifice of the men who chose the infinitude of death to prevent the red rain of war falling upon the land they loved.

Canon Cody recalled that the 76th Battalion was mostly made up of natives of Toronto. Their colors, which they received from Major Church now hanging in Westminster Abbey above the tomb of General Wolfe.

Born on City Hall Site.

"We have specially to remember Col. Beckett, who recruited and commanded the 76th Battalion. He was born in Toronto fifty-two years ago, on the site of the city hall.

He died valiantly in his men after their long and arduous service. He fell like the typical British officer he was. He was a true type of Canadian civilian soldier.

The pity of it seemed to be that Col. Beckett was a native-born Canadian. A former member of the Star's editorial staff.

Many of them were Toronto University men. We take pride in their achievements as native-born Canadians," said Archdeacon Cody.

"We never knew how big an ordinary man was, and we have had a revelation of how small the official Canadian man can be."

We were fully determined to go on to
