

The Evening Times Star

VOL. XVIII, No. 25 PAGES ONE TO EIGHT ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1921 SIXTEEN PAGES—ONE CENT

ish Demand For Abrogation of Ulster Act Is Reported

Government Said to Have Declared This Impossible and Outlook is Regarded as Gloomy—Next Meeting May Decide if Peace Possible.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Final demands have been presented by the Dail Eireann delegation attending the Irish conference here, so it was reported in London today. These demands, if conceded, would involve abrogation of the act which gave the Ulster government control of the six northern counties in Ireland, but it was asserted the government had indicated that acceptance of these claims was impossible. The issue has been referred to Dublin, according to the report, and it was implied that the Dail Eireann answer, which is expected by Monday at the latest, will probably be unfavorable.

TRUCK TRAIN TO ESCAPE POSSE

and Trunk Cars Derailed; Three Men Hurt.

at Mich., Oct. 29.—Grand Trunk passenger train No. 5, westbound, was derailed last night, when persons for a sheriff's posse are searching for a man who had fled from the train. Three men were injured seriously. The engine and the first passenger car were derailed, and a fast passenger bound from Port Huron to Chicago, was running at a rate of speed, but the engineer was so slow that one of the rails had been in time to slacken the speed, the coaches merely sheered into the ditch without great damage.

MIX-UP IN IDENTIFICATION

The Police Inclined to Believe Murdered Woman was Mrs. Wagstaff.

New York, Oct. 29.—Detectives today are trying to determine which of two runaway wives it was—if either those dismembered bodies was found in a pond at Long Island. This was brought about by claims of relatives, one of which furnished the mutilated body was that of Mary Agnes Wagstaff, while the other, Dolly Bailey Higgins, maintained it was the body of her sister. Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. Wagstaff had both been reported to return home. Both had been reported to be in the company of another man, mold Wagstaff, husband of one of the missing women, identified the body as that of his wife. He was accompanied by four friends, who also identified it as that of Mrs. Wagstaff. The police are inclined to accept this identification.

REFUSAL TO WORK AS FIRE FIGHTERS

Age Gone Into at Grand Court and Some Fines Imposed.

several residents of Grand Bay, South Westfield appeared before Judge Thompson at Grand Bay this morning to answer a charge of refusing to fight forest fires which were raging at vicinity this summer. A plea of guilty was entered by several of those appeared.

Australia Wheat

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(Canadian Press.) A wheat cable from Melbourne says the Australian House of Representatives had adopted Premier Hughes' proposal to advance three shillings a bushel to the farmers at railway sidings all voluntarily pooled wheat. The law was thirty-three to twenty.

GREK PRINCESS' HONEYMOON IN ENGLAND

Princess Xenia of Greece and her husband, William Leeds, the American millionaire, photographed on a channel steamer on their way to England. They were married in Paris and are spending the first part of their honeymoon on a houseboat touring the English canals.

Think Arrest Near In Mail Robbery; Boston Is Cautious

Green Auto Used in the New York Job is Identified.

New York, Oct. 29.—The green auto used by the three handits in last Monday's $100,000 mail robbery, has been identified and the net is drawing close about at least one of the thieves, said Chief Post Office Inspector Clegg today. It was learned that inspectors committed mail robberies in other cities and are leaning more toward the theory that the hold-up was the work of local talents, aided by an "inside" confederate.

EXTRA GUARDS PLACED ON DUTY AT BOSTON PUBLIC BUILDINGS AS A MATTER OF PRECAUTION BECAUSE OF RUMORS AFOAT.

Boston, Oct. 29.—Extra guards were on duty today at several public buildings here. Officials explained that they were taking precautionary steps because of rumors of possible demonstrations. All but two of the severest entrances to the Federal building were closed during the night to make it easier to observe all who entered. The usual force of four interior watchmen was doubled. Other guards were on duty outside.

HYLAN'S PLAN AROUSSES STORM

Allegation That New York Mayor is Catering to German Vote.

New York, Oct. 29.—(Canadian Press.) The announced plan of Mayor Hylan to pay special official honors today to Richard Strauss, a German musician, who has come to the U. S. to fill engagements, has aroused a storm of protest from patriotic U. S. citizens. The mayor has arranged to have Strauss escorted from his hotel by a motor cycle squad of police, and will receive him officially at the city hall. The Tribune summarizes the objections which have been put forth by many citizens in their letters of protest. After remarking that Strauss has come to the U. S. merely "to fill his purse, and doubtless has no aversion to the free advertising with which the mayor is presenting him, the paper continues: "His Honor is in a panic. To get votes he will pay any price. Hearst or some one else has whispered to him: 'Cater to the pro-German,' and he obeys."

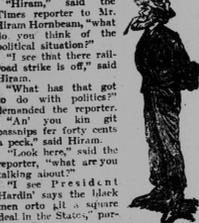

WOULD HAVE SCHOOL HISTORIES OF U. S. AND CANADA REVISED

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 29.—A resolution asking for the appointment of a joint commission of the National Educational Association of the U. S. and Canada to review the school histories of these countries, was made true to the interests of harmony and good will in the several English speaking countries without violating vital historical truths, was adopted by the Washington Educational Association here yesterday.

GET £25 EACH FOR DRESS TO LOOK WELL AT WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

London, Oct. 29.—To enable them to make fitting appearance at the Washington conference, each of the British government women clerks attending the conference will receive a dress allowance of twenty-five pounds.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "what do you think of the political situation?" "I see that there railroad strike is off," said Hiram. "What has that got to do with politics?" "An' you kin git passin' fer fer politics," said Hiram. "Look here," said the reporter, "what are you talking about?" "I see President Hardin says the black men orfo all a square deal in the States," pursued Hiram. "I didn't ask you to talk about any of those things," protested the reporter. "I read the papers myself. But I asked you what you thought of the political situation."

EIGHTEEN LOSE LIVES IN GREAT RAIN STORMS

Guatemala City, Oct. 29.—Torrential rains in western Guatemala have done great damage to property and have caused floods in which eighteen persons have lost their lives. The City of Quetzaltenango, about 100 miles west of here, was inundated, and large tracts of the country are under water.

DID WELL Supper and Sale by Girls' Branch of Little River Community Club.

A very successful bean supper and sale conducted by the Girls' Branch of the Little River Community Club, was held in their hall last evening. The chairman of the Club, F. E. Godwin, acted as auctioneer and made references to the work of the club. He said that the smallest girl in the club, whose age is eight years, was making a quilt after only four weeks of instruction. Mrs. Richard Chase was convener of the evening, and charge was assisted by Mrs. D. Babcock, Mrs. P. E. Godwin, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. K. E. Fairweather. The proceeds amounted to $80 and will be devoted to the work of the club.

STABBED AND THROWN INTO THE NIAGARA

Buffalo, Oct. 29.—That K. R. Losoy, twenty-year-old student at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., was stabbed during a fight and that his body was later thrown into the Niagara River, was the opinion expressed by Dr. Earl G. Dancer, county medical examiner, after an inquest. A body believed to be that of Losoy was found floating in the river on Thursday night. He said conditions showed that the young man was dead before he was thrown into the water.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by authority of the Department of the Interior and Fisheries, R. F. Stepp, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis.—The disturbance which was in Kansas yesterday is now centered in Missouri, with increasing energy. A severe storm covers Newfoundland and pressure is highest in the Pacific states. Rain is still falling heavily on the British Columbia coast. Elsewhere the weather is calm.

Maritime.—Winds mostly north and northwest, strong at first in Cape Breton, fair today and on Sunday.

Gulf and North Shore.—Fair today and most of Sunday. Not much change in temperature.

New England.—Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight; followed by rain Sunday; increasing east and southeast winds, becoming fresh to strong Sunday.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Temperatures.—Lowest during night, 48.

Stations	8 a.m.	Yesterday	Night
Victoria	50	56	50
Kamloops	54	64	54
Edmonton	52	68	52
Prince Albert	50	68	50
Winnipeg	50	68	50
White River	48	68	48
Sault Ste. Marie	48	68	48
Toronto	48	58	48
Kingston	42	56	42
Ottawa	40	58	40
Montreal	38	48	38
Quebec	38	48	38
St. John, N. B.	34	42	34
Halifax	48	52	48
St. John's, Nfld.	28	36	28
St. John's, Nfld.	50	64	50
Detroit	46	64	46
New York	46	64	46

Wild Scene at Empire Union Meeting In Hall at Westminster

Earl Derby Howled Down and Meeting Broken Up.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(Canada Press Cable)—Amazing scenes were witnessed last night at a meeting of the British Empire Union in Central Hall, Westminster. Earl Derby was announced as the principal speaker, but he was howled down and finally the meeting had to be abandoned. Sir Ernest Wild, K. C., presided, and during his remarks there were continual interruptions from ex-service men and unemployed. He warned them if they did not behave they would be turned out, adding: "You will find plenty of brother boisterous outside."

"G. B." AND BABE BOTH AT SEA

The English Writer Wants to Know Who "She" Is.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—George Bernard Shaw, author of "Man and Superman" and other dramatic works, who showed what he knows about boxing by picking Georges Carpentier of France as a fifty Dempsy, doesn't even know that much about Babe Ruth's lack of lore concerning belles lettres.

NEW YORK WARMS TO BEATY, BUT HYLAN COLD

New York, Oct. 29.—(Canadian Press)—Admiral Lord Beatty yesterday visited the floor of the New York Stock Exchange. Trading was practically suspended for a few moments while the admiral was being escorted to the floor. The welcome which has been extended to Lord Beatty by the public generally has been his direct contrast to the enthusiastic tenor of the "official" welcome extended by Mayor Hylan, on his arrival. When he arrived to speak at the Pilgrim Society banquet he was given a tremendous reception.

ENGINEERS AND SHIPBUILDERS ACCEPT CUT

London, Oct. 29.—The hope that industrial peace will be attained in the country is strengthened by the announcement that the engineering and shipbuilding unions had agreed by 170,471 votes to 147,635 to the abolition of the 12 1/2 per cent. bonus granted them during the war. The reduction of wages will be made in three monthly cuts, beginning November 1.

LOOKS FOR REVIVAL OF CAR BUYING IN THE SPRING

Toronto, Oct. 29.—While admitting the uncertainty of present business conditions, Vice-President T. A. Russell, addressing the shareholders of the Russell Motor Car Co. at the annual meeting yesterday, said the outlook was favorable in some lines of the company's business. The former directors were re-elected. On the whole, Mr. Russell felt that spring would bring quite a revival of car buying. The company's 1921 production was 1,100 cars, finished liquidating and writing down its inventories.

JAP DELEGATES NEAR LAND.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 29.—The steamer Kishimo Maru, with Prince Takagawa and other Japanese delegates to the national conference aboard, was found bound off Southport Light, ten miles from Cape Mudge, where the coast guard cutter was sighted. She will reach Victoria today.