SPORTS AND DANCE IN PUBLIC SQUARE

People of Toronto Suburb Have a Real Community Spirit and Play Together.

(Toronto Telegram.)

"Better than ever" was the verdict of those attending the annual community picnic held in Monarch Park on Dominion Day, under the auspices of the Monarch Park Ratepayers' and Business Men's Association.

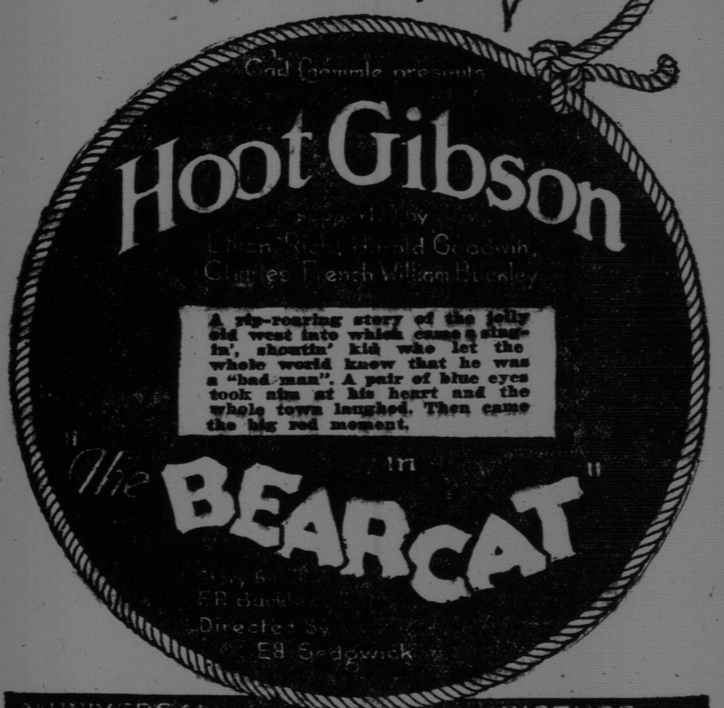

Although the opening hours of the holiday were not all that was to be hoped, the warmth of the afternoon sun brought residents of the district in thousands to participate in the popular yearly outing.

The small park was a display of colors, and the happy faces of the throng rewarded the busy committee who had worked untiringly for many weeks to bring the annual affair to a successful climax.

Mr. Harris spoke of the wisdom of the fathers of Confederation and the foresight that had meant so much to the rising generation in Canada.

True to Biblical prophecies this great dominion had reached from sea to sea, said the speaker, but nowhere in the vast expanse of land was the community spirit more in evidence than in the districts of Danforth avenue.

The Mayor Spoke.

At the opening ceremony Mayor Maguire spoke on the community spirit of the residents of the east end, evidencing good soil life and conducive to a better understanding existing among the masses.

Toronto, he said, stood out pre-eminent in displaying the community spirit, and of Toronto the Danforth district was the vicinity that featured the spirit of brotherhood in community life. Other speakers were Ald. W. A. Summerville and Isaac Pimblett.

The band of the 8th Battalion, Toronto Regiment, under the direction of Bandmaster Harold Bromby, pealed forth melodies that soon had the crowd in good spirits.

Populas Sports.

A complete programme of sports with events for old and young was enjoyed. An interesting feature was the race for children under five years which had innumerable entries, and each child was rewarded with a lollipop. The juvenile races were all patronized and warmly contested. In the contests for adults much amusement was provided for the onlookers. The hammer-and-nail race provoked much laughter and produced many bruised thumbs. Mrs. A. Haverley was the winner.

The mixed-shoe race recalled the trouble in Ireland, although shillalahs were not a part of the equipment. The scramble of participants to select their footwear from a mixture of styles and sizes looked like a scrimmage in a Rugby game. Stanley Reader got there first.

Other humorous numbers were the slow-walking race and the ladies' baseball throwing contest. The tug-of-war was won by the ratepayers' section of the association, due principally to the efforts of John Cost, a seventy-four-year-old member with a good pull.

Refreshments were dispensed from a large marquee, and a kiewpie doll game,

Community Dancing.

In the evening dancing on the pavement of Felstead avenue was patronized by over five hundred couples. The dancing was not confined to the pavement, however, as few there were who could resist the popular selections, dancing becoming general all over the park. The excellent way in which the finances were handled, through the erection of temporary booths and the selling of tickets, was a new feature of the management, and was commended by members and others.

THREE ARE TAKEN IN NEW YORK FOR BIG ROBBERY

New York, July 6.—Three men accused of a $2,000,000 hold up and robbery of a mail truck freighted with securities in Lower Broadway last October, and suspected of complicity in a $700,000 theft from an American Express Co. truck in Buffalo, in December, were held in $125,000 bail each yesterday.

Frank Haverack, who drove the truck, looted in the skyscraper district, identified the trio as the men who held him up. Detectives who arrested them on Monday in an apartment recovered $400,000 of the stolen securities, some hidden in the apartment, but the most of them secreted in an abandoned barn on Long Island.

The three captured here have prison records in this country and two of them, Gerald Chapman and George Anderson, are international in their workings. Last year they were in Berlin, London and Paris, according to George T. McCarthy, express company agent, who chased them over several states and finally trapped them here.

The other alleged thief, Charles Lambert, gave New York as his address.

Word was received last night of a serious motor car accident at McAdam, in which Marshall Gillies, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillies, formerly of St. John, was killed, and his cousin, young son of Mrs. George Moffat, also formerly a resident of this city, was severely injured.
