Was the laughing, dancing butterfly of wealth and luxury the real she? Or was it the worker, the hard worker of brawn and muscle, who cast aside money and ease for the lot of a common laborer?

There was one man who saw her as both, but never knew—she never knew herself which was the life she was really meant to live. You won't know until you see this great Rupert Hughes' picture, because the story unfolds naturally and mysteriously just as life itself. It is a great picture!
