GIRL GUIDES HAD A GREAT TIME IN CAMP

List of Badges Won by 2nd
Rothsley Company—A
Guard of Honor for Lady Byng.

The 2nd Rothsley company returned on Monday night after a grand ten days in camp at Purdy's Point on the St. John river. There were fifteen of them under canvas including the officers, Miss McAvity and Miss Purdy. The first whistle was at 7.30 and the flag put up at 8 and from then till the last marshmallows were toasted and the cocoa all drunk there was little peace and no quietness for miles around except during rest hours and the first few minutes of each meal.

Nearly everybody got their sportsman's badge and that means strenuous hours of stalking and tracking. The neighbors soon got over their surprise at seeing Guides skulking behind their barns or crawling snake-fashion along the edges of their fields. The Armistice patrol, K. Peters, patrol leader; and the swallows under M. Peters, patrol leader won the All-Canada cup for games. These were presented before the flag was hauled down at the break up of camp, and the company also took that occasion to present a thanks badge to MacGregor Grant who has been of great assistance to them at both the 1922 and 1923 camps. Badges won in this company during and just before camp are: Swimmer—Guides Annie Allison and P. Fowler.

Artist—P. Fowler.
Needlewoman—Audrey Allison and B. Fairweather.
Toymaker—M. Fairweather.
Health—M. Fairweather, Anne Allison.

First class patrol leaders, K. Peters, M. Peters, H. Connell and Audrey Allison.

Athlete—Patrol leader M. Peters. Cyclist—B. Fairweather and Patrol leader Hester Spriggs of the St. Anne de Bellevue P.Q. company who was camping with the 2nd Rothsley company her child nurse, sick nurse and sportsman's badges.

The 1st and 8th St. John companies are camping at Beasley's Pt. on the St. John river. Captain Irene Barber of the 8th St. Johns is camp commandant and has on her staff Miss Shirley Magee of the 2nd St. John Brownie Pack and Miss Elsie Bell of the 1st St. John guides.

A very ready appreciation of William Allison's kindness at the big camp last year, was recently made when the association presented him a thanks badge.

It is hoped to have a guard of honor for Lady Byng, the president of the Canadian Girl Guides' Association. Captains will probably have the details by the time this appears.

"Beaver" Is The Call Of The Day

There was really no need for him to become angry; neither should he feel offended, but the cry of "Beaver" shouted at him half a dozen times in the run of a day made him feel that the term was one of ridicule of his personal appearance, although he was unable to get within sufficient distance of the boys and girls who cried the offending word to ascertain the mechanical means. It was at this time of his bodily characteristics that the word "Beaver" was directed.

"It's all a game—originated some time ago in England but now gaining great headway on the American continent. Scoring is done as in tennis. Two people start out and each keeps his weather eye open for whiskered gentlemen. The first to spot on cries, "Beaver" and thereby scores "15." Other counts follow as in tennis—30, 40 and—unless the other competitor has reached 40—game. In case both counts are 40, then "deuce" is the score. Game from this point is reached by two successive "Beavers" by one competitor; in case each score one after "deuce" the score is again "deuce" and the two straight advantages must follow for game.

There are some variations, but the simple game is by far the most popular. Somewhat of a sensation was caused in London recently when a rule was made that the person calling "King Beaver" on sighting His Imperial Majesty, was entitled to a game without further count. Some people expressed the opinion that such action was against the dignity of royalty, but it is understood that the King appreciated the humor of the situation and instead of frowning upon the innovation, rather took it as a real good quip.

However, the game is achieving great popularity amongst the young people and has even reached some of the more elderly of our population, who themselves might be subjects for scoring. "BEAVER."

MONSTER LOBSTERS.

(Halifax Record)
Charles Owen, accompanied by C. J. Cary, while fishing at Musquodoboit Harbor on Sunday, secured a monster lobster. He was a battle-scarred and bruised crustacean and was in a fighting mood when taken from the water. The lobster was seen on the bottom, but owing to his large proportions could not be got into a dip-net. Mr. Owen played with him with an oar, which did not suit the lobster's fancy, for he secured a hold on the oar and was drawn into the boat. He measured 38 inches from tip of tip of claws and 18 inches from tip of tail to head, and when weighed at Musquodoboit on Monday evening tipped the scales at 21 pounds. Mr. Owen brought the lobster to Dartmouth and will be taken to the Provincial Museum.

Clas, Faulkner, a fisherman for the Maritime Packers, Ltd., River John, took from his traps a few days ago two monster lobsters—one weighing 15½ pounds and the other weighing 12 pounds.

Chief of Police Hickman has received a communication from a correspondent, referring to Mrs. Edward Hickman, who at one time lived in West street, this city, and who was murdered by her husband a few days ago in Lunenburg, Maine. Hickman, after killing his wife with a flat iron, cut his own throat and died some short time later. The letter stated that the writer saw and conversed with Mrs. Hickman in the streets in Halifax less than a year ago and that the children of the couple were then with friends in Hantsport. Mrs. Hickman said that she belonged to Scotland and that her relatives had a large farm there.

DUTY MAY BE CUT IN HALF

Declared Possible Result of U. S. Investigation Into the Tariff on Some Logs from Canada.

A Washington Canadian Press despatch says that as a result of an investigation ordered by the U. S. Tariff Commission into the duty on logs of fir, spruce, cedar or western hemlock the duty may be cut fifty per cent. The present duty is $1 a thousand feet board measure. A reduction, it says, would be an advantage to the export trade of New Brunswick and British Columbia.

Paragraph 401 of the U. S. Tariff Act provides that the $1 duty shall apply only when the country of export is not an embargo or restriction of some nature. It is under this paragraph that the commission has ordered an investigation. The U. S. treasury department has applied the full duty to logs from British Columbia and New Brunswick with certain exceptions.

Some U. S. concerns, which own stumpage in British Columbia have asked the investigation and hope to secure a fifty per cent reduction in the duty.

O'GRADY-HURLEY

Wedding of St. John Interest Takes Place in Mattapan, Mass.

A very pretty wedding of much local interest was solemnized in St. John's church, Mattapan, Mass., Tuesday evening, July 3, at seven o'clock, when Rev. Father John Ryan, the officiating priest, united in matrimony Miss Esie U. Hurley, daughter of the late David A. and Mrs. Hurley of Castor, this city, and Thomas G. O'Grady, son of Thomas O'Grady, formerly of St. John, and now residing in Boston.

The wedding took place from the home of Dr. F. D. Stanton, Milton, another St. John boy who has made his mark in the U. S. The bride was becomingly attired in a beautiful gown of pearl gray flat crepe with coral trimmings and picture hat of corresponding shades. She carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. She was given away by her brother, Steve C. Hurley, manager of Gordons, Codman Square Theatre, Dorchester, Mass.

Miss Margaret Stanton, niece of the bride, looked charming as bridesmaid, gowning in cocoa crepe, relieved with tinted shades of palest trimming, and hat to match. She carried a floral bouquet of deep tinted roses.

Little Olive Rouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouse, formerly of St. John, was flower girl. The little tot made a charming picture dressed in white silk and bonnet, and carrying a basket of pink baby buds. The groom was supported by his brother, Joseph O'Grady.

After the ceremony a twilight dinner was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. D. Stanton, and afterwards a display of fireworks was given on the lawn.

The groom's gift to the bride was a chest of silver, to the bridesmaid an onyx ring, to the flower girl a large French doll, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Grady left on Wednesday morning for an automobile trip to the White Mountains and on their return will reside at 28 South Conant, Lynn, Mass.

A great number of valuable gifts were received, many of them from friends in St. John, who united in extending their good wishes for future happiness.

Mrs. D. A. Hurley, mother of the bride, was present, being the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Stanton.

THORNTON AND HALIFAX

At Thursday's Halifax Board of Trade Council meeting a letter was read from Sir Henry W. Thornton, President of the Canadian National Railways, stating he would probably make an announcement shortly with regard to the differential rate, which would be pleasing to the members of the Board, and which would constitute further evidence of the desire of the railway to assist the people of the Maritime Provinces.
