RECENT SESSION WAS OF VALUE TO IRELAND

Redmond Regards Universities Bill as Important

Large Share of Pension Fund Will be Received—Lectors are Coming to Boston This Autumn. DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—At a meeting yesterday of the Central Branch of the United Irish League, John Redmond, who presided, dilated upon the importance of the last parliamentary session so far as Ireland was concerned. He considered the Irish University Bill one of the greatest emancipating measures of the century, and he would always be proud of his share in its adoption. Ireland, he said, would receive nearly four million dollars a year under the Old Age Pensions Bill, which would benefit seventy thousand people in Ireland. These and other measures were the substantial results of their parliamentary work. He uttered a warning to the British government, however, that there was still important work to be done in connection with the land legislation and the congested districts. He was not responsible for the maintenance of peace in Ireland. A resolution was adopted embodying the customary demand for Home Rule, another resolution offered by John Dillon, was unanimously adopted, thanking the members in the United States for the invitation extended to John Redmond and Joseph Devlin to attend the convention of the United Irish League of America to be held in the fall at Boston. Speaking later on the subject, Mr. Redmond said their visit to America must be brief, owing to the necessity of their returning for the reopening of parliament.

THREE CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHTS THIS WEEK

Contests to be Held in California in Featherweight, Middleweight, and Lightweight Classes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Three pugilistic contests, each involving the championship of its respective class, will be held in California next week. One of them is an international match between Owen Moran, the English featherweight champion, and Battling Nelson, who holds the title in America. The other two are between Stanley Ketchell and Billy Papke, for the middleweight championship, and between Leitch and Jim Corbett, for the lightweight title. In every case the fights are what might be termed as return matches, as all have met their respective opponents in previous battles. Ketchell and Papke and Moran and Nelson fought on September 1, the former two at Los Angeles, the latter at San Francisco, both bouts taking place in the afternoon. Two days later the famous boxing carnival at New Orleans in 1880, when Jim Corbett won the championship from Leitch, was held on September 1, the former two at Los Angeles, the latter at San Francisco, both bouts taking place in the afternoon. DOVNS FOUND GUILTY OF COMMON ASSAULT

In the circuit court this morning the case of The King vs. Martin Downes was heard. The prisoner was charged with attempting to commit rape. Solicitor General McLeod prosecuted and Fredricks defended. The first witness was the complainant, Mrs. Paul of the 18th day of June last, entered her house at Maple and while she was in the room she was assaulted by her mother screaming. The witness was not sworn on account of her age. When asked by the Solicitor General where she would go if she did not tell the truth, she replied "Dorchester." Paul Fredricks, the complainant's husband told about his wife telling him the story of the attempted rape. That closed the case and E. S. Ritchie then advised the jury on behalf of the prisoner. Solicitor General followed and stated that under the circumstances the jury could find the prisoner guilty of attempted rape, indecent assault or common assault. The jury returned shortly after one o'clock and reported that they found Downes guilty of common assault. The prisoner was remanded for September 10.

BRAZIL AND VENEZUELA

CARACAS, Sept. 2.—President Castro's refusal to permit the Brazilian Charge D'Affairs to assume charge of French interests in Venezuela, is the latest item in the long and complicated story of Venezuela's international complications, and speculation is rife in Caracas as to whether Brazil will look upon this action as an insult directed at her, and what France will do towards getting representation here for her interests after this rebuke. The situation is somewhat involved, since the Venezuelan government at first accepted the Brazilian legation as in charge of French interests.

THE FIRST DIRECTOIRE GOWN SEEN IN ST. JOHN WAS WORN TODAY

SPECIAL SESSION TO DEAL WITH TARIFF

U. S. Senator Says One Will Likely be Called

And He Expects Many Hot Contests—Tax on Canadian Lumber May be Reduced—Reciprocity Mentioned.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Senator McCumber, who has just returned from visits to President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, today expressed the opinion that the extra session of Congress which is to be called after the fourth of next March for the revision of the tariff, will be of long duration, and that it will witness many stubborn contests over the various schedules which it is proposed to change. Mr. McCumber said that the west will demand that several articles which are now on the protected list shall be made free of duty, especially lumber and coal. According to the Senator, the people of the northwest where timber is scarce, are generally of the opinion that if the American market, which is open to the Canadian lumber supply, there would be a material reduction in price. While not sharing this opinion as to the reduction, he thought that many evils could be avoided by transferring the lumber schedule from the protected to the free list and will heartily support such a policy. Mr. McCumber would make a determined effort to have the duty taken off wool. He also predicted that the western delegates, especially those representing the agricultural communities, will stand out determinedly in opposition to the effort which he expects to make to procure a provision in the new tariff for reciprocal relations with Canada.

THE DIRECTOIRE GOWN Worn by Miss Pauline Biedermann. From a sketch made by the Star by Mr. Francis Sageron, of the Selman Co., as the bridal party entered Trinity Church.

At Wedding in Trinity Church

It Was Not an Extreme Effect by Any Means, But Formed a Most Attractive Costume—Sketched for the Star

The first Directoire, or sheath gown which has appeared in St. John, was worn this morning by Miss Pauline Biedermann, while officiating as bridesmaid at her sister's wedding. For the edification of the lady readers of the Star, to say nothing of the men, a sketch of the costume is given herewith. The drawing was made by Francis Sageron, of the Selman Stock Co., as the bridal party was entering Trinity Church. Reference to the drawing shows that the gown was not of the extreme clinging, snake-like kind which made the world sit up suddenly and take prompt notice this spring. The fact that a Directoire, or as it is more popularly called, the sheath gown, was to be worn this morning, was evidently known before hand and attracted a large crowd of ladies. There seemed to be considerable disappointment on the part of some members of the congregation when they discovered that the costume was not of the tight variety which they had seen illustrated in the Sunday papers. It was, however, a good example of the Directoire gown as worn now by other American cities since its introduction in Paris last April. The gown was worn over a ramp of cream colored Irish lace with a high neck band and long close fitting sleeves. The gown itself was of broad cloth of a beautiful pale pink shade and was trimmed with cream silk braid and pink velvet. The waist, which was tight fitting, was cut low at the front and back, and had loose fitting sleeves of quarter length. A fold of the waist was draped across the front in a graceful curve. It was slightly short waisted to give the long hip effect to the skirt. The skirt fitted closely down over the hips and then fell in straight lines almost to the ground, where it flared widely, ending in a short train. As the skirt was full enough at the lower end to allow the wearer to walk quite comfortably, the side slit was not an absolute necessity, and was not very much in evidence. When first introduced in Paris the gown was worn without underdrift, and with rights of a vividly contrasting color, the skirts being slit far enough from the ground to show these details. This is not an absolute requirement in the best circles of fashion, however. Miss Biedermann also wore a large pink velvet picture hat, with velvet trimming and pink bisarre plumes. The costume was one which could only be worn by a person with an extremely good figure and the charming bridesmaid made a most attractive picture in it this morning.

A GREAT STORM IN ENGLISH CHANNEL

Much Damage Has Been Done to Shipping.

Many Vessels Driven Ashore With Loss of Life—Channel Service Suspended.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Late tonight the gale, which has prevailed all over the English Channel for the past 24 hours, showed little signs of abating. Much damage was done ashore as well as on the sea. The wind at times blew at the rate of 70 miles which is almost unprecedented at this time of year. Never before has it been necessary in the summer to suspend the boat service between Folkestone and Dover and the mid-day service to Calais. An enormous number of vessels have been driven ashore or obliged to seek shelter. Many exciting scenes are reported, but fortunately there has been no great loss of life except in the case of the British bark Amazon, the crew of which had a terrible experience. The Amazon went ashore on Margam Sands and the people on the land could plainly see the men clinging to the rigging or lashed to the bulwarks, but were helpless to save them. One of the men was seen carrying a number of the men down. Two of the crew which numbered 22, were drowned. Six others were washed ashore. The captain of the Amazon was killed in his cabin by a falling mast. Among the vessels which were driven into seeking shelter was the French steamer Touquet Pas, which is carrying Dr. Jean Charcot and his expedition on a voyage of discovery to the South Pole. The Touquet Pas put port at Guernsey during the height of the storm.

GRAND ARMY VETERANS ASSEMBLE IN TOLEDO

Big Parade of the Old Soldiers Was Held Today—Great Crowd of Visitors in Attendance.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 2.—With flags flying, bands playing, crowds cheering and a bright sky overhead, veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic for the forty-second time, marched through the avenue of an encampment city. Through two miles of streets, the old campaigners of Grant and Sherman moved to the bare of bands and the pipe and roll of tin and drum. The day had been proclaimed a holiday by the mayor and the majority of business places, as well as all public officers, were closed. Long before the march started the streets were packed with humanity, which made it impossible to move on the sidewalks. Local newspapers estimate that including the veterans and their women folk, there were 150,000 visitors in the city.

GOMPERTS ON THE STUMP IN SUPPORT OF BRYAN

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 2.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, last night opened his campaign for the democratic national ticket. He began with a defense of unionism and diverted to a discussion of strike, saying that a strike was the weapon of labor to be used only in cases of extreme necessity. He closed with an appeal for every man present registration of party affiliation to vote for Bryan.

MURDERER IS SANE AND MUST STAND TRIAL

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Sept. 2.—A lunacy commission appointed by Justice Kellogg to determine the mental condition of Roland Dunning, who is charged with the murder of Jerry Apple and Elmer Crowder, who were killed at Black Lake last spring, has reported finding Dunning sane. Dunning will now be tried for murder in the first degree.

MAN AND TWO BOYS WERE HURT AT RY. CROSSING

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 2.—Frank P. Kleindaus, a mechanical engineer, was almost instantly killed, his son Ernie, aged five, was probably fatally injured, and his nephew Austin Klein, aged 8, seriously hurt, when an electric car on the Charleston Line struck the buggy in which they were riding. Mr. Kleindaus was the author of many scientific articles, including an article now running in the Post Trade Review.

LATEST WEATHER REPORT SHOWERY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The weather for the next few days is expected to be showery with occasional showers of rain.

BUT THE MOVING PICTURE MAN WAS NOT THERE

An Equine Comedy in Which a Horse, a Boy and a Loaf of Bread Participated

A number of people witnessed a sight on Charlotte street this morning that, if photographed, would have done well as a motion picture comedy. Two boys, driving delivery teams, left their charges in front of the market entrance. The rear horse thought he would investigate what was in the wagon ahead of him. So after nosing the face looked rather unamused. The big paper bag of flour, the small boy who had charge of the mischievous animal arrived on the scene, picked up the destroyed loaf of bread, threw it into his sister's wagon and drove off with a broad grin on his face.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS YOUNG WOMAN'S DEATH

It Was Said That She Had Been Drowned, But Doctors Discover Marks of Violence on the Body.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 2.—The body of Miss Marie Remke, 25 years old, who lives at 88 Maybury Avenue, lies at the county morgue today with the neck broken, a rib fractured and numerous bruises and lacerations, and Coroner Bennett has started an investigation into the young woman's death. Miss Remke was a member of a boating party on the Detroit River last night and the first news of her death was that she had fallen into the water when going ashore at Edgars Resort at the head of the river. A physician was called to attempt resuscitation but the young woman was dead when the doctor arrived. Later the injuries found on the body aroused comment and it was remarked that the girl's hair was dry.

THEATRICAL SEASON OPENED IN LONDON

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The autumn theatrical season was inaugurated by J. Forbes Robertson last night, at the St. James theatre, under the management of George Alexander. This was Mr. Forbes Robertson's first appearance in a long time. Although society is absent from the city, the audience included many well known literary people who extended the warmest reception to Mr. Forbes Robertson and Miss Gertrude Elliott and further expressed their decided approval of the performance. The play which is by Jerome K. Jerome is in an entirely new vein. It is entitled about the warmest reception to Mr. Forbes Robertson and Miss Gertrude Elliott and further expressed their decided approval of the performance. The play which is by Jerome K.
