H BR.VER. - Dartmouth N. S.
The social world is very dull—that is for the grown ups though the younger portion of society
who were home for the holidays had a very gay time of it. The weather has been very cold so that a bright pleas ant firsteld was preferable to going out a kating—about the only merriment we are indulging in at present. Both the Dartmouth lakes and Williams' lake have been througed with akaters every atternoon, though the distance to the latter lake kept fainted-hearted people away. Most of the men who go in for outdoor shating play hockey
with great energy, and on Monday and Tuesday it was indeed the only way to keep warm. A fortnight ago the devottes of this game played without any coats and with a noble display of white shirt sleeves.

might sgo the devotees of this game played white shirt sleeves.

The private and with a noble display of white shirt sleeves.

The private afternoons began last Friday and in spite of the falling snow there was a large attendance. It is said that a larger number than usual have joined this year which will make things very crowded. In spite of the storm many new winter contimes made their appearance on that occasion notably a very pretty and well made brown cloth costume, with small toque to match. Another very pritty costume was of dark green, with trimmings of velvet and fur. Quite a number of bright reds made their appearance, and helped to give a warm (fict. Also a number were wearing blue of the new shade, which is at present so fashionable.

The Brikhite band, which played in the rink for the first time, kept very good waltzing time which was as agreeable, as it was surprising, as a veryore expected there would be some treuble just at first about the time. There nearly always is as the time is different to that played for ways is as the time is different to that played for ways is as the time is different to that played for ways is as the control of the surface of the bandsmen locked very marri, a thing, which one does not often see at the rink, the weather usually being so recree that they have to keep on their heavy overcosts.

men locked very mart, a thing, which one does not often see at the link, the weather usually being so server that they have to keep on their heavy evercoads.

Tea was feived as usual in spite of the many glorny prepheries which had been made about its probable absunce; there was a searcity of dancing men cwing to the large number of beginaers but dancing was kept up with much spirit. Quite a catastrophe hap pened, just as the band stuck up to announce the lancers the electric lights suddenly went out, and the rink was lest in total darkness. Everyone's partner had to be found, and the different sets had to be found and the different sets had to be found, and the different sets had to be found and the different sets had to be found and the different sets had the sets were properly formed.

The first of the league hockey matches begin at the rink the week, and they will be and the different sets had the sets were properly formed. The had been different s one adjourned to the legislative assembly to hear the speeches of the mover and seconder of the

JAN. 15.—Notwithstauding the inclemency of the weather, the reception at Ladles college, Saturday evening was well attended. A large number of new students were initiated into the mysteries and as it was the favorite "topic reception" all enjoyed themselves with a zest which must be gratifying to Dr. and Mrs. Borden.

The rink still holds its own and is well patronized On Thursday evening the Sackville band will be in attendance and the evening is eagerly awaited. Another attraction will probably be the bean supper served by the Ladies Guild, in connection with 8t. Pauls church, in one of the rooms of the rink.

It is expected that the seniors' annual "At Home" will take place in about four weeks.

"Aye! There's the rub!" And that ought to be enough in itself to seal the doom of bar soap. This rubbing with soap may get clothes clean, if you work hard enough, but can't you see how it wears them out?

Follow the directions that come on every package of Pearline, and you'll find that you not only do away with the hard and ruinous work of rubbing—but that you save time, and actually get better results. At every point Pearline is better than soap. But the mere fact that Pearline saves the rubbing—that ought to settle it.

BEWARE Peddlers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never yeddled. If you grocer sends you an imitation, be hones—send it back, 463
