

CANADA WOULD SUFFER BY IT

H. B. Ames, M. P., in City, Talks on Reciprocity.

Proposed Pact Would Expose Canadian Farmer to World-wide Competition.

Many Evils Would Follow in the Train of Freer Trade with the United States as Now Suggested.

H. B. Ames, M. P., for St. Antoine Division, Montreal, who is taking a prominent part in the fight against reciprocity, was in the city Saturday on business.

Well known as a civic reformer in Montreal, before he entered parliament, Mr. Ames is regarded as one of the most disinterested men in public life, and having made a life long study of political, economic and social problems his opinion on matters of public policy is valuable.

In discussing the reciprocity question with a Standard representative, he adduced strong arguments against the adoption of the arrangement, and pointed out various ways in which it would injure the country.

"It is admitted on all hands," he said, "that the National Policy, adopted in 1878, has worked for the development of Canada. When the Liberals came into power they continued the policy, but with slight alterations, and the tariff of 1897 differs little from its predecessors.

"Of course protection is more or less of an artificial condition. It is defensible only when all those who are called upon to contribute can likewise claim and receive the right to enjoy its benefits.

No Protection for Farmers. "These new proposals mean free trade in natural products. If they are adopted there will hereafter be no protection for the farmers of Canada on what they sell. But as to what they buy, they will purchase under protective conditions.

"The home market is to be thrown open to world-wide competition in natural products, and naturally people ask, 'What it stop there.'

"In what way does protection now benefit the farmers?" Mr. Ames was asked. "Well, by developing and reserving a home market. A great many farmers are benefited in various ways. Or why should so many of them be such strong supporters of the National Policy?

"The tariff-reducing arrangement makes protection illogical and if it goes into effect powerful forces within and without will demand the abolition of protection all along the line, among them the farmer, fruit raiser, hog raiser, who find themselves worsted in competition with their American neighbors.

"An officer of the National Grange of the United States recently stated that the agreement would mean the end of protection so far as the farmer is concerned. Then the Grain Growers of the Canadian West will work for the abolition of the whole policy under which the country has prospered. Their organ recently stated that they would be content with nothing less than free agricultural implements and general tariff reduction.

"Would Close Up Industries. "How would the industrial workers of Canada like to see free agricultural implements and the British preference increased 50 per cent?" continued Mr. Ames. "Heads of industrial establishments will tell you that it would close up half the establishments in the land.

"As for the forces from without, it is no secret that the American negotiators asked for a mutual free list of manufactured articles, and they are still in hopes of getting more. That means that if the Americans have their way the industrial interests of Canada will be the next to suffer."

"What do you think about the argument that Canada would be free to arbitrate the agreement at any time?" the reporter asked.

Canada Stands to Lose. "Well, in the mind of Congressman McCall, President Taft's special representative who put the agreement through the American House, the chief recommendation of the agreement seemed to be that it tended towards a policy of unrestricted trade between the two countries. Where there is so much disparity in the size of the contracting parties, the weaker stands to lose, and if our trade relations become inseparably bound up with our big neighbor we would find it hard to withdraw without hurting certain of our own people.

"Then there are the forces from without. With the recognized leaders of both political parties of the United States desirous of increasing the list covered by the reciprocity arrangement, may we not expect— Continued on page 2.

DOVE OF PEACE NO LONGER HOVERING OVER MEXICO

Mexican Trouble Once More Looks Serious.

Military Rule Follows Bomb Outrage in Juarez—Several People Killed

President Diaz Addresses Parliament and is 'Attentively Listened to—At Same Time Tide of Revolution is Rapidly Rising.

Mexico City, Mexico, April 1.—Committing himself to the advocacy of many of the reforms demanded by the revolutionists, although professing to bow only to the influence of public opinion, General Diaz answered his critics through his semi-annual message at the opening today of the congress.

The principle of no re-election of the chief executive and incumbents of other elective offices and the reform of the electoral laws so that the privilege of the ballot may be enjoyed by the citizens, "who are considered capable of voting," were advocated.

The message refers specifically to the application of the no re-election principle, to the naming of governors, and to the re-organization of the judicial system. It also contains a recommendation that the president should be elected for a term of six years, and that the president should be elected by a direct vote of the people.

The president proposes to improve the efficiency of the judiciary through a more careful selection of its personnel and lengthening of the tenure of office. Emphasis is placed on the need for a more efficient judiciary, and the president proposes to improve the efficiency of the judiciary through a more careful selection of its personnel and lengthening of the tenure of office.

In no previous message of the president has there been anything in the nature of a recommendation. Until today his messages have been resumes of things accomplished. The public knowing that the president would in this message find expression in the members of congress and from the minute the chief executive entered the chamber of deputies until the last word of his message every man on the floor as well as those persons in the galleries, listened intently. Every available seat in the galleries was occupied either by diplomats, public officials or by those fortunate enough to have obtained cards of admission.

President Diaz appeared no more aged tonight than he did when he read his message in September, and in spite of the fact that the reading today required more than an hour, his voice was as strong as the conclusion as at the beginning.

Only once was the president interrupted by applause. At the mention of reforms there was a spontaneous clapping of hands for one brief moment and then there was heard no more applause until the close when "NO GOOD TO GOD OR MAN" THE APPEAL DISMISSED ACCIDENTS ON THE I.C.R.

Despondent Immigrant Wrote These Words On Card And Then Jumped Overboard From Steamer Southwark.

Halifax, April 2.—The White Star Dominion steamer Southwark arrived yesterday from Liverpool with 761 passengers, the great bulk of whom went by special trains. They are from the British islands. About thirty are coal miners who leave for Cape Breton tomorrow morning. The Southwark proceeded to Portland where she will discharge a large cargo. On the second day out from Liverpool, a man on the Southwark who was in the third class, but who was said to have no ticket, jumped overboard, and though the steamer dove to for five hours, he was never seen again. A card was found on which he had written these words: "I am no good either to God to man or wife." His identity was revealed by a valise. He had a family in England.

PRESIDENT DIAZ.

The big auditorium resounded to hand-clapping and cries of "Viva." The audience followed the reader keenly. Now and then some one would cough or a shuffling of feet would be heard and instantly scores of frowning faces were turned toward the origin of the sound and low choruses of hisses, the signal of silence, would arise.

In order that the campaign against the rebels may be waged efficiently, the special appropriation for the war department should be $25,000,000 more than that usually asked for at the spring session of congress. Announcement was made today that congress would be asked to make a special appropriation of $2,500,000 to cover the expenses during the remainder of the fiscal year.

Bomb Outrage in Juarez. El Paso, Texas, April 2.—Early this morning three bombs exploded in a dance hall near the soldiers quarters in Juarez, which destroyed the place and killed and injured a number of people.

The garrison was immediately ordered out, and General Navarro rushed to the scene. Soldiers have surrounded the wrecked buildings and have effectually prevented the disclosure of any particulars.

Rurales are patrolling Juarez and communication between Juarez and El Paso has been cut off except by telephone. People of Juarez were ordered off the streets immediately after the rurales and police began patrolling the disturbed quarter and street cars were stopped running.

A heavy guard was stationed at the state prison and along the main thoroughfare leading to it. A report gained currency that the bombs were exploded against a wall of the prison in an effort to wreck it. A short time before the explosion two Americans had trouble with negroes at the race track in which shots were fired, one of the Americans, Jesse Burchell, being wounded, but not fatally. The American, whose name was not learned, also was injured.

CANALEJAS IS BACK ON JOB

SUFFRAGETTE DEMONSTRATION WAS A FIZZLE

The Opposition To The Census Taken In London Petered Out—Only a Few Kept Their "Dates."

London, April 2.—Except as an advertisement for their cause, the opposition of the suffragettes to taking the census of London tonight was apparently a rather futile demonstration. The midnight meetings, which it was proposed to hold at Trafalgar Square and Westminster with the object of marching in procession to a skating rink where the women were to spend the night, proved a fiasco.

Only about a score of suffragettes appeared at either rendezvous. At the skating rink there were exciting scenes, through the enormous crowds which had gathered to watch the proceedings. They blocked the entrances and prevented the ingress of the suffragettes, some of whom fainted in the crush.

Ultimately a large force of police was called out to clear the neighborhood. Many women spent the night at the rink, but it is understood that they were counted by the census officials as they entered. A number of well known women placed their residences in the west end at the disposal of the suffragettes, who are sleeping on sofas, tables, and chairs, their hostesses taking the risk of being fined for refusing to account for their guests.

At Edinburgh, Birmingham and Glasgow, the suffragettes adopted similar tactics.

ST. LAWRENCE NAVIGATION Indications That River Opening Will Be Late This Year—Ice Holding Fast In St. Lawrence.

Montreal, April 1.—With the ice still holding solid, there is every indication of an unusually late navigation opening in the St. Lawrence river this year. There is no prospect of boats being moved about in the harbor for another fortnight at least and it is usually further two weeks after the opening of the harbor before the first inward bound vessels arrive in Montreal.

A table of dates compiled by the commission to show the average official date of opening, places this at April 10. The Lady Grey and the Montcalm, which succeeded in reaching Sorel a few days ago, will not try to go further up the river at present but will confine their efforts to the much more difficult undertaking of keeping open the channel between Sorel and Quebec.

SHELDON SENT BACK TO JAIL Montreal Fakir Arraigned In Pittsburg For Stealing $1,185 From His Former Landlady And Remanded.

Pittsburg, April 1.—C. W. Ross, alias Charles D. Sheldon, who is wanted in Montreal on allegations that he knows where the $200,000 belonging to trusting clients has gone, was arraigned in an alderman's court here today upon complaint of his landlady. It is charged that Ross or Sheldon has failed to account for stock and money she had entrusted to him. About $1,185 is involved.

Spanish Crisis Ends Before it Has Been Well Begun

Premier Undertakes Task of Forming New Cabinet with all the Insurgents Out.

Vatican Expressed no Surprise, but Expects that He will have Short Lease of Power—Much Trouble Ahead.

Madrid, April 2.—The ministerial crisis which appeared fraught with the greatest possibilities, seemed to have ended as abruptly as it began. It has resolved itself, seemingly to the general relief, into a second reconstruction of the Canalejas ministry.

King Alfonso, on his arrival from Seville, this afternoon, immediately received Senor Canalejas and requested him to continue in power. The premier agreed on condition that he be permitted to make such changes in the cabinet as he deemed necessary. To this the king readily assented.

The premier hopes that the work of reconstruction may be completed tomorrow and that the ministry will appear in the courts without delay.

The existing ministers probably will be Gen. Aznar, minister of war, who was mainly responsible for the crisis by his attitude in demanding that the Ferrer debate be suspended immediately by a vote of the majority, and Senor Coa, minister of Finance, who appears never to have been wholly in agreement with the religious policy of the premier.

It is understood that one of the first steps of the premier will be to relieve the captain general of Madrid of his command.

The continuation of Senor Canalejas in power is universally regarded as highly probable. The Canalejas crisis is supported by both public opinion in Madrid and the provinces, and all sections of the Liberal party, as well as by many Conservatives. It is generally believed that he alone is capable of preventing the Ferrer case from developing into a Spanish Dreyfus affair, thus adding a serious element to the present difficulties. The social crisis seems to be passing, and the army which has been so bitterly against the Ferrer case, now seems to have changed its attitude.
