

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

REDERICTON.

Feb. 3.—(Special)—There a short session of the government and the business session. All the members were present. Hon. Messrs. McKeown and LaBilios, who were delayed by trains being late. The meeting will be continued tomorrow.

Charles Forbes, of Newswalk, formerly proprietor of the Maryville Hotel, received tidings last evening that his son, William, died suddenly, presumably in the lumber woods of Maine, where he had been working. No particulars are given. The young man was in his 19th year, and was a great favorite.

F. B. Smith, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has purchased from A. Comberthwaite the dwelling and lot on George street occupied by him. The price was in the vicinity of $8,000. Mr. Smith will take possession on May 1. Mr. Comberthwaite is understood to have a building in the spring.

Gilbert Dykeman, of Queensbury, has purchased from J. F. Mackay one half of the latter's house on the corner of Queen and Northumberland streets, occupied by F. L. Potts. The price was about $2,500. Mr. Dykeman has possession on May 1st. He is going into the grocery business in this city with Hedley Van Wart.

Doctor Seery, who was in Boston for medical treatment, returned home today, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. P. Dever. He was met at the junction by Doctor Crockett and the ambulance conveyed him to his home in Carlton street. His friends will be sorry to learn that there is not much improvement in his condition.

Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Newswalk, met with a serious accident at the Arctic rink last evening. She fell while skating and was run over and partially stunned by another skater. Doctor Crockett found that she had sustained a bad cut on the side of the neck, in which a number of stitches had to be put, and also that her spine had been slightly injured.

George L. Pugh and Wallace Barpee, farmers of Newswalk, are the purchasers of 19 spotted old cows which sell for $1200 each. On Friday, the 6th, Doctor Bridges, of St. John, will lecture in the university library on Higher Education and Practical Life.

Fredericton, Feb. 5.—(Special)—The question of dissolution of the local legislature has not been considered by the government at its meeting last night, where he is to undergo an operation for cataract on the eye.

year were installed by Grand Master A. D. Thomas, assisted by A. J. Drysdale, acting director of ceremonies. Geo. T. Hamilton, C. M. P. Bessie, D. C. M. Robert Elliott, chap.; A. D. Thomas, secretary; John Oldham, treasurer; J. H. Beattie, D. of G.; C. H. Fox, lecturer; J. Staples and H. G. Veness, deputy lecturers.

Doctor Harrison has posted the following results of the examinations in honor mathematics held last week: Seniors, Div. I—Freeze, Patterson, Miss Carruthers; Juniors, Div. I—Colwell, Sherwood, Miss Sterling; Sophomores, Div. I—Sansom; Div. II—McNaughton.

Fredericton, Feb. 5.—(Special)—Superintendent Osborne, of the C. P. R. Mr. Barbour, superintendent of the engineering department, and W. W. Hubbard, Dr. J. H. Burnett had a professional call from Boston today and will leave by 10 o'clock for a patient there.

S. J. Warrick and family have moved to St. John. The Sussex Curling Club have had some difficulty up to the present in getting an ice rink in their rink, but last night it was good and now there will be something doing.

Woodstock, N. B., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Rev. M. J. Campbell, of Jochville, formerly of St. John, died of typhoid fever, contracted four weeks ago, followed by a nervous collapse, was not expected to recover, but tonight he was much improved, but not out of danger.

Rev. Fathers Murphy and Bradley were in the city today. The celebrated writer and poet, gave several of his famous readings in the Opera House tonight, under the auspices of the A. O. U. E. notwithstanding the storm, the hall was fairly large audience were in attendance and Mayor Belyea introduced the speaker.

Miss Martin, who has the school at Grand Falls, fell on the slippery sidewalk yesterday and dislocated her shoulder. Her injuries will confine her to the house for some time.

Penobscot, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Daniel Robinson is quite ill. She is being attended by Dr. McAllister of Sussex. Mr. Armstrong, of St. John, travelled for Red Rose tea, in the village today. John White, of St. John, and Kigour Shiver, of Campbellton, who own the mine, fell on the icy ground at night. It is said they will soon get up quite a lot of machinery to work this mine.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Grand Manan, Feb. 2.—The body of Edward Lamb, of Wilson's Beach, was brought from St. John on Wednesday, Jan. 28, by steamer Aurora. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing friends, who mourn the sudden death of such an able man, having perished while engaged in fishing, and being rescued by the crew of the Aurora. The body was taken from the dory and placed in the water, and the crew of the Aurora were coming towards them.

Hampton, Feb. 4.—The funeral of Wm. Mitchell, who died on Sunday, took place on Tuesday afternoon. The body was conveyed to the Methodist church, where the service was conducted by Rev. W. W. Lodge, after which the body was conveyed to Passaic for burial. The deceased was 68 years of age and leaves four sons and two daughters and four brothers and one sister.

Truro, N. S., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Will Ross, aged 13, who, last night, was raising on the government over head bridge with his brother, accidentally fell off the bridge, 25 feet, to the frozen ground below. His wire netting forming a side protection between the upper rail and the floor of the bridge, was broken and young Ross tumbled into the open gap. He was picked up unconscious and did not gain consciousness till today. The outer skull is fractured, one leg is broken and badly swollen, the knee, bruiser many cuts and bruises. It took the doctors six hours to get the leg set and the skull dressed. The boy is doing well today. The father is the son of John D. Ross, a postal clerk in Truro and St. John.

Truro, N. S., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Mary Dunlop Chisholm, widow of late Mr. B. Chisholm, died at Westport, N. S., on Friday, aged 95 years. She was one of the oldest women in Cumberland. She had 10 children of whom seven survive. She also leaves 28 grand children and 10 great-grand children.

Professor Robertson is in Nova Scotia in the interests of the Macdonald rural schools association. He held a conference with County School Inspector Armstrong and the Macdonald manual Training Fund Director Kidner here tonight, and at an early hour returned to his home in Truro, where he is the principal of the school.

Halifax, Feb. 3.—(Special)—A telegram from the light house keeper on Seal Island says: "The Lunenburg schooner Masco, Captain Schwartz, was wrecked on Devil's Lamb, January 28. Crew saved. The Masco was 98 tons and owned by Charles Hewitt."

Halifax, Feb. 3.—(Special)—A telegram from the light house keeper on Seal Island says: "The Lunenburg schooner Masco, Captain Schwartz, was wrecked on Devil's Lamb, January 28. Crew saved. The Masco was 98 tons and owned by Charles Hewitt."

Halifax, Feb. 3.—(Special)—A telegram from the light house keeper on Seal Island says: "The Lunenburg schooner Masco, Captain Schwartz, was wrecked on Devil's Lamb, January 28. Crew saved. The Masco was 98 tons and owned by Charles Hewitt."

Halifax, Feb. 3.—(Special)—A telegram from the light house keeper on Seal Island says: "The Lunenburg schooner Masco, Captain Schwartz, was wrecked on Devil's Lamb, January 28. Crew saved. The Masco was 98 tons and owned by Charles Hewitt."

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

Congressman Geo. H. White's Case. A Noted Sculptress Cured.

The world of medicine recognizes Grip as epidemic catarrh. Medical Talk.

Mrs. Celeste Covell writes from 215 N. avenue, Aurora, Ill.: "Only those who have suffered with the Grippe and been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Peruna has been placed at the door of every suffering person."

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip. Mrs. M. G. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world.

After having a severe attack of the Grippe I contained in a feeble condition, after the doctor advised me to try Peruna and secured a bottle, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."

LA GRIPPE is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the few are exempt—no one is liable. Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, can be translated "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with a wurl Grax had plucked us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster. Peruna for Grip. Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the Ex-Secretary of the German Consulate, writes the following letter from 3417 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.: "I suffered this winter with a severe attack of the Grippe. After using three bottles of Peruna I found the grip had disappeared."

DEATH CLAIMS ANOTHER NOVA SCOTIA CAPTAIN. Captain Samuel Groves Dead at Granville Ferry—Outbreak of Diphtheria—Minister Ill. Annapolis, N. S., Feb. 5.—(Special)—The death of Captain Samuel Groves occurred at the residence, Granville Ferry, this morning, after a prolonged period of illness at the age of 65 years. Deceased had for some years suffered greatly from diabetes, which was the immediate cause of death, but it was not until about a fortnight ago that he was confined to his bed. Captain Groves was largely interested in shipping, but the nature of his disease compelled him to relinquish seafaring some six years ago after having successfully commanded several vessels on foreign voyages.

DEATH OF CRIMEAN VETERAN. Wore Medals for Bravery, Pinned on His Coat by Queen Victoria. Mr. Matthew Higgins, aged 78, a survivor of the Crimean war, died in Winsted (Conn.), on Monday night. At the age of he joined the Queen's Grenade and was at the battles of the Alma, Inkerman, Balaklava, and the siege of Sebastopol. He received a medal for gallantry at the battle of Inkerman for capturing a Russian officer who was bearing dispatches of great importance; and a second medal for brave and meritorious service during the war. The medals were pinned on Mr. Higgins' coat by Queen Victoria at a review at the Horse Guards in London, at the close of the war.

Increased Pensions for Mexican War Veterans. Washington, Feb. 4.—The house committee on pensions today authorized a favorable report on the senate bill, to increase the pensions of all Mexican war veterans from $8 to $12 per month. The number of Mexican war veterans on the pension rolls is shown by a report from the pension commissioner to be about 3,000.

Man of the Merrimack Not Allowed on Retired List, and Demands Acceptance of Resignation. Washington, Feb. 5.—Captain Richmond P. Hobson, corps of naval constructors, insists on the acceptance of his resignation from the navy. Secretary Moody refused to accept a telegram from him today to that effect. He said his decision to resign was final. His telegram was in reply to a request from the secretary of the navy questioning the withdrawal of his resignation and that he make a trial of the duties to which he had been assigned at Bremerton naval station, because the navy did not wish to lose the services of an officer whose record had been so brilliant. Hobson is now in New York.

Sm's Love in Gloucester County. Baitusht, Feb. 4.—Smallop has broken out in three places in Gloucester county, viz: At Shippagan, St. Joseph's, and at Luger. At Shippagan, 65 miles from here, there are 10 cases. There are several cases at St. Joseph's, near Grand Aise, and at Luger, 10 miles from Baitusht, there are four cases, all in one house.

Speaks of Cape Breton Matters. Captain Moffat, manager of the Lake Bras d'Or Steamship Company, is in the city on his way to Boston. The past season, especially in tourist travel, he says, was not especially prosperous, and it is yet rather early to make any prophecies regarding the coming season, which will be about April. The steamship company owns four boats, and there is no intention at present of increasing the fleet.

Speaking of the track and wire, Captain Moffat said that the track and wire had been laid from North Sydney to Sydney Mines and that all will be in readiness to open the road in spring. This will make a line from Sydney Mines to Glace Bay.

A Pipeful of "Amber Plug" Smoking Tobacco will burn 75 minutes. Save the Tags they are valuable. HOBSON INSISTS. Man of the Merrimack Not Allowed on Retired List, and Demands Acceptance of Resignation. Washington, Feb. 5.—Captain Richmond P. Hobson, corps of naval constructors, insists on the acceptance of his resignation from the navy. Secretary Moody refused to accept a telegram from him today to that effect. He said his decision to resign was final. His telegram was in reply to a request from the secretary of the navy questioning the withdrawal of his resignation and that he make a trial of the duties to which he had been assigned at Bremerton naval station, because the navy did not wish to lose the services of an officer whose record had been so brilliant. Hobson is now in New York.

Advertisement for 'See the Kids' featuring a picture of children and text about a product.

Advertisement for Beecham's Pills, 'The World's Medicine', for Bilious and Nervous Disorders, Stomach, Constipation, Wind and Pains in Stomach, Impaired Digestion, Disordered Liver, and Female Complaints.

Advertisement for 'Our Illustrated Catalogue' by Ambrose, Bent & Sons, featuring various items and prices.

Advertisement for 'CANCER' medicine, featuring a picture of a person and text about the treatment.