ST. GEORGE.

St. George, Jan. 17—There was a very interesting and pretty wedding at the home of Mr. A. S. and Mrs. Baldwin on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Edith Frances Baldwin, their only daughter, was united in marriage to Mr. Philo Alston Hanson, of the firm of Hanson Bros. The bride was gowned in a handsome dress of dregs of wine silk, which was most becoming, with trimmings of chiffon and lace. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were invited to the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. M. E. Fletcher, late pastor of the Baptist church. The bride's going-away gown was a tailor-made suit of brown cloth with brown hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson were driven to Chamcook, where they took the train for New York. On their return trip they will visit some of the cities in Upper Canada. The bride received a large number of handsome gifts, among them being a half dozen solid silver spoons from the choir of the church of which the bride has been a member.
