

WEDDINGS

Smith-Farris. Salisbury, N. B., Oct. 14—A quiet home wedding was solemnized on the afternoon of Sept. 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, North River, Salisbury, the contracting parties being H. D. Smith, a brother of Mrs. Montgomery, who is in the employ of T. McAvity & Sons, St. John, and Mrs. Marion Tarris, of Hillsboro (N. B.). Rev. F. G. Francis of this village was the officiating clergyman.

Donohue-Kiervan.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who have been in Albert and Westmorland counties, will reside in St. John.

Donohue-Kiervan.

Tuesday, Oct. 13. In St. Peter's church at 6 o'clock yesterday morning the rector, Rev. Chas. McCormick, C. S. S. R., united in marriage, Arthur Murray Donohue of Boston and Miss Evelyn Kiervan, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Kiervan of this city. Nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father George. The marriage ceremony was performed in the presence of the bride's relatives. The bride was attired in a handsome dress of cream chiffon and wore a black hat decked with yellow plumes. Her traveling suit was a brown Norfolk with hat to match. She was given away by her brother J. P. Kiervan, and was attended by Miss Florence Bradley. The latter wore a brown velvet dress with cream trimmings and a white beaver hat with gold trimmings. Frank Cunningham, cousin of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Joseph Gallagher and John McCloskey.

Reid-Duffy.

Tuesday, Oct. 15. A very pretty wedding took place yesterday morning in St. Peter's church when Miss Nellie Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duffy was united in marriage to Robert Reid of West St. John. The ceremony, which took place at half past five o'clock, was performed by Rev. Charles McCormick, C. S. S. R. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in a blue serge suit with a white picture hat and carried a pair of white prayer beads. Her sister, Miss Mary Duffy, was bridesmaid and wore a grey suit and white hat with black ostrich plume. The groom was supported by J. Newman. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, P. Cheney street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Reid left for their future home, 79 Seneca street, St. John. The bride received many handsome presents, among which was a check from her father and a dinner and tea set combined from her father and mother. The groom's presents included a gold watch and chain and to the bridesmaid a handsome bracelet and to the groomsmen a pipe. Mr. and Mrs. Reid will have the best wishes of many friends for a happy life.

Ritchie-White.

A pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Joseph's church, Dunoon, B. C. on Wednesday morning, Sept. 25, when Miss Kathleen White was united in marriage to Frank J. Ritchie, formerly of St. John, N. B. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Francis. The bride was attired in a pretty suit of pearl brocade, with hat to match, and was attended by Mrs. J. A. Duffy as bridesmaid. The groom was supported by E. A. Duffy. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie received many present from friends in St. John and the west. The groom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marmaduke Ritchie.

Roy-Berton.

Thursday, Oct. 17. St. John's (Stone) church was the scene of an interesting event at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon when Geo. Cunningham Roy, formerly of Perth, Scotland, and now manager of the branch of the Bank of New Brunswick in Sussex, was united in marriage to Miss Roberta Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr Berton. The church was prettily decorated for the wedding with rosettes and garlands of white flowers and the guests were tied off with knots of white heather and orange blossoms. Rev. G. A. Kuhlberg, rector, officiated. The bride was escorted by Arthur Dundas, and the groom, with Dr. Arnold Fox at the organ, assisted with the musical part of the service, which included a solo, "O Perfect Love," sung by Arthur Dundas. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Berton as bridesmaid, and her little niece, Miss Florence Warwick, as flower girl. John Young, manager of the branch of the Bank of New Brunswick in St. Stephen, acted as groomsmen, and the ushers were Lewis Heron, brother of the bride, and Alexander Turner, manager of the Bank of New Brunswick branch in Chippewa. The bride wore a golden brown velvet suit and had trimmed with champagne colored willow plumes. She carried a white prayer book and a dainty bouquet of white heather with a single white rose. The bridesmaid's gown was of white marquisette over yellow and her hat was of cream plush with black underneath. Her bouquet was of chrysanthemums. The groomsmen and ushers wore button-tied suits of white heather.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, 20 Summer street, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy left for a wedding trip through the eastern states before returning to Sussex, where they will reside.

The gifts, which were numerous, included substantial checks from the bridegroom's relatives in Scotland and a handsome oak case of cutlery and silver from friends of the bride and bridegroom, formerly of Ontario.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

A quartet from St. John's church choir assisted in the service with Mrs. Malcolm playing the wedding march. The ushers at the church were Jack Marr, St. John, and Edward Robb. After the ceremony, the bride and groom were taken to the bride's home and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the Maritime on a wedding trip to upper Canadian cities.

Monday, Oct. 15. (Special)—St. John's Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Frances Taylor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Taylor, was united to Charles Raymond in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. MacOrran. The bride, who was attired in white duchesse satin with overdrussing of crystal and silk embroidery and carried a spray bouquet of lilies of the valley, was supported by her sister, Miss Hazel Taylor, with little Miss Jessie Rippey as flower girl. The groom was supported by W. F. Humphrey, Jr.

occasion of their last reunion was at this village about a year ago at the home of Mrs. Catherine Randall. On this occasion they were photographed. The eight surviving members of the family are: Mrs. Charlotte Miller, Caribou (Me.); Mrs. Catherine Randall, Salisbury (N. B.); Mrs. William D. Murray, Whiston Settlement (N. B.); Mrs. Steeven Settlement (N. B.); Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran, Lewis Mountain (N. B.); Mrs. Joseph L. Beakney, Intervale (N. B.); Mrs. John H. Whiston, Quarry street, St. John, and Thomas Whiston, the B. & A. Railway, New Sweden (Me.).

Before removing to Maine some twenty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were for many years residents of Portland. A few years after their removal to Maine Mr. Lewis was killed by lightning. Besides a very large family connection, Mrs. Lewis is survived by one son and four daughters.

Jeremiah Harrison. Wednesday, Oct. 16. Jeremiah Harrison, for many years one of the leading business men of St. John, died yesterday in Fredericton.

The late Mr. Harrison was born in Cambridge, Queens county, on April 17, 1826, and was a son of the late Hon. Charles and Mary (Burpee) Harrison. His father was for many years a member of the legislature for Queens county, and later a member of the legislative council.

Mr. Harrison was educated at the Sunbury Grammar school. In 1850 he built the first carriage factory erected in the province, and his factory was the first operated by steam in New Brunswick.

Mr. Harrison was a member of the Sunbury Carriage and Harness Co., which was formed in 1850, and in the following autumn began the construction of the wharf known as the Portland wharf.

He was a member of the firm of J. & W. F. Harrison, which dealt largely in groceries, provisions and West India goods. In 1884 Jeremiah Harrison severed his connection with the firm and established the business which still bears his name.

Mr. Harrison was interested in many things, and was one of the original stockholders in the New Brunswick railroad, stockholder in the Springhill coal mines, owner of several vessels, and one of the original stockholders of the Maritime Telephone Co. He was vice-president and one of the directors. He was formerly one of the school trustees and a vestryman of St. Luke's church, and was also for many years a member of the council of the board of trustees of Fredericton.

He is survived by his wife, daughter of the late Canon William Harrison of St. John; two daughters, Mrs. D. Lawson and Mrs. Wm. Harrison; one brother, the Hon. A. M. Harrison, of Marguerville; and one sister, Mrs. Whitehead Barker, of Sheffield.

John Downie. Thursday, Oct. 17. John Downie, a well known resident of Torribay, passed away at his home yesterday morning after a brief illness. He was sixty-five years of age, and leaves two sons and five daughters. The sons are John and James, and the daughters are Margaret, Nellie, Sarah, Ellen and Myrtle, four of whom are living in the states. The funeral will be tomorrow afternoon at 2.30.

George W. Dow. Thursday, Oct. 17. At his home in Prince street, Carleton Place, yesterday morning the death of George W. Dow occurred after an illness lasting for about a year. He was seventy-seven years of age, and leaves a wife and three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. He was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt, she has three children: Archer C. Puddington, of New York; David W. Puddington, Mrs. D. M. Manks, Mrs. R. B. Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, all of St. John. She was 79 years old and leaves a great number of friends.

Mrs. Eliza Merritt. The death occurred on Monday, Oct. 14, of Eliza J. Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt. Mrs. Merritt was the daughter of David Wetmore, of Clifton, Kings county. By her first marriage to J. E. Puddington, of the firm of Puddington & Merritt,