

in the examinations as equivalent to certain optional subjects. Detailed arrangements will be made at the commencement of the School year, September 3rd, 1884.

SCHOOL HOURS.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.—From 9 a.m. to 1½ p.m., with one intermission of ten minutes, and one of half an hour.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT.—From 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., with intermissions as above.

SENIOR DEPARTMENT AND ADVANCED CLASSES.—The time of attendance of senior and advanced pupils depends upon the courses chosen, but all ordinary and honour work in the School is comprised between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2½ p.m., daily.

MEDALS AND PRIZES.

A silver medal, given by the Commissioners, at the close of each session, is the First General Proficiency Prize of the Third Senior Class. Bronze medals are similarly given in the remaining classes of the school higher than Preparatory. In all the classes, prizes in books and prize certificates are awarded annually by the Board for excellence in special subjects, and for superiority in general proficiency.

By special arrangement with the McGill University, all pupils of the Third Senior Class will be examined at the University School Examinations in all subjects common to these and to the school course, and prizes in such subjects will be awarded on the report of the examiners. The cost of the examination will be defrayed by the Commissioners, and the candidates who are successful will receive their certificates on the payment of $1 to the Registrar of the University.

TUITION FEES.

All tuition fees are payable quarterly in advance, no pupil being permitted to remain in the School without due payment.
