CARPENTERS AND JOINERS TO COME HERE THIS MONTH. T. and L. Council's Regular Session. There was a splendid turnout of organized labor last evening despite the rising temperature. President Bert Hughes occupied the chair and the local woodworkers, millcarriers, boot and shoe workers, railroad employes, laborers, brewery workers, upholsterers, bricklayers and masons were represented.

UNION-MADE SHIRTS. The secretary reported a store in Waterloo handling none but union label working shirts.

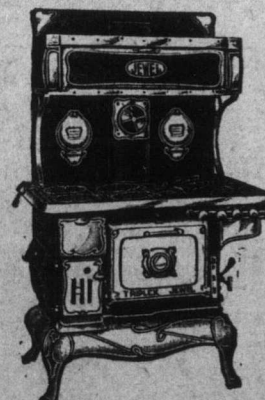

NEW DELEGATES. Byron N. Armstrong, A. P. Plummer and Amos Willis were named as delegates from the bricklayers and were accordingly received and seated.

TORONTO'S CELEBRATION. A request from the Toronto District.

Grand River Railway Company

Notice is hereby given that the Grand River Railway Company will apply to Parliament at its present session for an Act to amend Chapter 47 of the Statutes of Canada, 1904, by repealing Section 3 thereof, which enacts that the acquisition by the Company of the Galt, Preston & Heslop Street Railway and the Preston & Berlin Street Railway shall not make such Street Railways subject to the Railway Act or works for the general advantage of Canada but that they shall remain subject to the Legislation of the Province of Ontario. This amendment is designed to have these railways declared works for the general advantage of Canada. Dated at Montreal this 30th day of April, A.D. 1919.

An Admiring Eden. Six London, Ont., bachelor girls have placed instructions with an architect and builder to build cottages for them on a plot of ground secured in the southeastern section of the city. The girls stipulate that the houses shall face each other circling a small park plot, which will be common property. Each house will have a living-room, dining-room, kitchen, bath and two bedrooms, and will be equipped with a separate furnace. They at first called for a central heating system, but this has been found too expensive. The girls who have disclosed their identity only to the architect and builder, announce that they all intend

After Effect of Flu. From the after effects of an attack of influenza the death occurred, while on a business trip at Truro, N. S., of Harvey L. Murray of Montreal, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Murray, Woodstock. He suffered from influenza in February, this year. He was European buyer for Debenham's Canada, Ltd., and was a young man of exceptional ability.

Guelph Doctors Favor It. Dr. A. Mackinnon was well equipped with arguments in support of vaccination and he succeeded in getting going properly at last night's meeting of the Board of Education. Amongst other things he had a document signed by all the medical practitioners of the city except two, giving it as their opinion that no pupil should be admitted to school without having been vaccinated. This did not see the light of day last night because of the chairman's ruling, regarding which various views he heard on the streets to-day.

Egg Preserver

The Water Glass process of preserving eggs has been recommended by leading agricultural colleges. We would suggest you laying in a stock of this egg preserver and commence laying aside your eggs for the time of scarcity. Summer prices are always considered much less on this edible commodity than in the winter. Therefore, it is a good investment to buy Water Glass.
