

An Act to repeal the Thirty-first Section of the Fishery Act.

WHEREAS the Fishery Act has not attained the objects for which it was passed, and the 31st section of chapter 62 of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, one of the sections of the said Act has proved prejudicial to the interests it was intended to protect, and has placed fishermen in a false position as regards their interests: Therefore, Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:—

I. Hereafter the thirty-first section of chapter sixty-two of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, as hereinafter cited, namely: "Except, as aforesaid, no one shall catch maskinonge, pickerel, nor black bass, between the fifteenth of March and the fifteenth day of May," shall be deemed to have been always void and of no effect, and the said section is hereby repealed.

31st section of cap. 62
Con. Stat.
Canada repealed.

II. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.

Public Act.
