

INDEX.

CHAPTER I.—BIRTH, NOT BEGINNING.

PAGE.

- The baby-girl—Conjugated in the passive voice—Mrs. Gamp—
The mother's discovery—Original sin and actual transgressions—Law of heredity—The burden of to-day ..... 13

CHAPTER II.—INFANTS' FOOD.

- Mother's milk—Milk-producing food—Old wives' fables—Effects of the mother's moods and habits upon the nursing child—Illustrations—Foster-mothers—Margaret Maguire
—Man an omnivorous animal—Substitute for mother's milk—Bottle-babies—Importance of regular hours in feeding ..... 21

CHAPTER III.—STARTING EVEN.

- Story of a child of Nature—Our sons and daughters start even —Twelve years of boyhood for each sex—Mortality of sexes equal in childhood—Complexion and clothes—Outdoor life—Dietetics better than drugs—Illustrations from life ..... 35

CHAPTER IV.—HANDICAPPED.

- Nature not responsible for constitutional weaknesses—The mother the true representative of radical reform—Fashionists and purists—Why few women can walk—Half-girls, half-boys—Premature bloom, imperfection—Sinful desecration—Formation of business habits in the girl—
"Pottering 'round"—Mrs. Garfield's broad-making—Dignity of commonplace life—From birth to the marriage-day
an irresponsible, penniless pet—Why boys have savings' banks and girls do not—Domestic bribery and corruption. 47