

Ottawa, April 26, 1916.

Miss Nellie Douglas,
261 Russell Hill Road,
Toronto.

My dear Nellie:

In case you may not already have forwarded the same.

I enclose a draft of the letter we arranged together last Saturday which it was thought you might send to the Session and Board of Managers of St. Andrew's Church. If you have already written the letter, please keep this as a copy.

I cannot tell you with what feelings of joy I look back to the little ceremony of Sunday last, nor how grateful I feel at the thought of the beautiful tablet to Isabel being where it is at the present time. None of us will ever be able to say how much we owe to you.

With kindest remembrances,

Yours very sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
