

fyng their blessed Lord afresh, and putting Him to an open shame, saying that they are saved, and still they are fettered to the demons of sin. Again I say if sin-fettered Christendom only knew where they are going to without the baptism of the Holy Ghost, they would cry to God now for the baptism. Why? Because they are going to that place where there is no rest day and night, nothing but torment. Beloved, that moment we turn our backs to sin for ever, in the spirit of true repentance, we receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Such are the conditions we must fulfil before we can be cleansed from all sin, and sealed unto the day of redemption. Why is it that the unbaptized, sealed soul staggers into that place of unrest and torment? First, they have not been filled with the true spirit of repentance, which is to turn our back to sin; next, they are sealed with the demon of sin, which is the devil. "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey: whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness." Just as the devil at the present day has the preachers in the pulpits preaching to the flock sitting under their care, telling them not to worry themselves about sinning, as they cannot be freed from sin here, not until they get to Heaven, so just in the same way he gets them to preach Water Baptism, his counterfeit for the true baptism, for well he knows that the moment any one gets the baptism of the Holy Ghost, he must clear out. Christ's great work is to destroy the works of
