SWINTON'S
LANGUAGE LESSONS.

R. DAWSON, B.A., T. C. D., Head Master High School, Belleville.

I have been very much pleased by the introduction of "Swinton's Language Lessons," into the list of Canadian School Books. It is simple, comprehensive, and reliable; and shows very clearly how easily the study of grammar may be made to go hand in hand with the practice of Composition, the great end for which grammar ought to be taught. We have at last an elementary text book which may be entrusted into the hands of the most inexperienced teacher without any fear of its being abused.

JOHN JOHNSTON, P. S. I., South Hastings.

I have carefully examined "Swinton's Language Lessons," and am convinced from what I have seen of it, and from what I have heard from some of my most experienced teachers, that it is by far the best Elementary text book on the subject that has yet been placed within reach of our Canadian children. The simultaneous exercises in composition are an admirable feature. I shall recommend the book for use in all the schools in my district.

J. M. PLATT, M.D., P. S. Inspector, Picton.

I am greatly pleased with this little work. Our best and most experienced teachers teach grammar to junior classes orally, after the same fashion. Young and inexperienced teachers can do as well with "Language Lessons" as the oldest and best can do without it. For pupils just entering upon this important branch, this little book in question has no superior in the market.

W. S. CLENDENING, Inspector East Bruce, Walkerton.

With its valuable aid the teacher will find it no difficult task to make the study of language agreeable to even junior pupils. I esteem it so highly that I will use my influence to get it into the hands of every teacher in my district, and, if authorized, into every school likewise.

ROBERT MATHESON, M.A., H. M. High School, Walkerton.

Language Lessons will assuredly prove a boon to teachers of composition. I find that for teaching English Grammar it is superior to the usual treatises, as it treats of Grammar in a practical manner.

C. MOSES, P. S. I., County Haldimand, Caledonia.

I have carefully examined Swinton's Language Lessons for junior classes and consider it one of the best yet published, being admirably adapted for use in our public schools.
