

business and avoid
r and avoid
r's property

T. Persons whose hearing, sight, or color perception is known to be defective, must not be employed in any capacity where such defect may endanger the safety of life or property.

ant to pro
detrimenta

U. Employees must devote themselves exclusively to the Company's service, attending during the prescribed hours, and residing wherever required. They must not, directly or indirectly, engage in any other business or trade without permission. Employees who are liable to be called upon for good and service of the Company, must keep the proper officer advised as to where they can be found.

service of
e Company
g good any misuse of

V. Employees must not absent themselves from duty without authority; exchange duties with others or engage substitutes.

operly and
and other Company
ees must Company's

W. The giving of presents by employees to their superiors and the acceptance by employees of gratuities or rewards from patrons of the Company is prohibited.

person, or stock, must
he proper
of injury
as many

X. The Company reserves the right to deduct from the pay of its employees, fees for medical attendance, and rents, where employees are its tenants.

or leaving
less with lent with

Y. Employees must not subject the Company to the service of a Garnishee Order on their wages or assign their wages without permission. They must reimburse the Company for any expense thereby incurred.

ther rail-
retained
isfactory
ous good

Z. Cars must not be placed on the main track to be loaded or unloaded unless authorized by a train order.

AA. Wood, lumber, stone, or other material, must not be piled within six feet of the rails.