Detroit Lacrosse Management
Breaks Forth with Abusive
Talk in News.

Reason for Leaving Field on Tuesday Last—Had to Catch a Train—Want to Wager
$150.—Mr. Babcock's
Statement.

The following is taken from the Detroit News of last night:
Despite the difficulties experienced by the management of the Detroit team in introducing lacrosse here, the local club has won a reputation for its playing strength and Manager Mude is certain that in time the crowds will turn out to see the great Canadian game. This sport is one of the fastest known. It is rough but no more so than football, and the play is always open.

Hopes are entertained of getting the Shamrocks of Montreal, the best lacrosse team in Canada, for a game here in September, and Bennett Park will be secured if possible. The Detroit men are sure they can hold their own and do better even than they did against the Toronto University team early in the season. At that time, Detroit had little chance for practice and development of team play.

Challenges have been issued to play the Wallaceburg and Chatham teams again, the Detroit management being willing to play either team for $150 a side on any neutral field and with any well known referee. These "defies" are the result of the feeling that has arisen from the games played with Chatham and Wallaceburg previously.

In the tie game, Tuesday, at Blenheim, Ont., between Detroit and Chatham, it is alleged that Chatham played six "ringers." The Detroit men claim that they played no outsiders and were crippled by the absence of two of their best men, Johnson and Walsh.

The Detroiters were disgusted by the shabby treatment which they allege was given them by the Chatham management and deny the charges made that they left the field to avoid certain defeat. The necessity for calling the game in time to catch a train is said to have prevented the playing of the tie.

Statements printed in the Wallaceburg-Detroit game have aroused the ire of the Detroit players and they longed for a chance to meet the Burgers again. These statements were to the effect that Detroit refused to accept another referee after Pat Lally had left the field, and that the Detroit team was kept from continuing play by "internal dissensions." Manager Mude says he was willing to accept any fair referee and that Wallaceburg decomposed unceremoniously. The Detroiters are willing to have as referee for either of the matches mentioned Jackson of Seaford, or Hugh Jack, or Jack Henry of Brantford.

Our reporter interviewed manager Frank Babcock and showed him the above clipping.
He said, "We did not play six ringers against Detroit. Only three players that were not Chatham men played with us, and we would rather have had Dowling and Elliott, who are eligible to play and who have played in championship games than the three outsiders we did have."

"In regard to the bet of $150 the Detroit management can be accommodated at any moment. Detroiters say they were shabbily treated by Chatham management. They were given more money for expenses than what was agreed upon and seemed to be well pleased at the way they were treated. They further state that the necessity for calling the game was due to their train and this prevented them from playing off the tie. This, as everybody knows who was there, is not true. The game was over at 6.11 and there was no train due to leave before 8.25. They had ample time to play another hour if necessary, but they were content to go home not losers."

LACROSSE

The Wallaceburg lacrosse team will play their return game with Chatham until next Thursday, when the second game for the Gray Cup will be played.

BASEBALL

The Ben Hur of Detroit play the local club here on September first and there is no doubt that it will be a good game, as the Ben Hur are playing good ball in the Detroit city league. PURITY. LAGER BEER

"The Beer That is Brewed in Glass"

Steel tanks, glass lined, are cleaner than wood can ever be, and an inspection of our closed, glass lined tanks will convince anyone of their undoubted advantage in that great essential of a successful brewery, viz., CLEANLINESS.

Our beer differs in no way from a beer perfectly fermented in open tanks, providing the collars, the tanks and the atmosphere in which the beer is fermented are absolutely free from bacteria or contaminating infection. These conditions are seldom possible and THE CLOSED TANK SYSTEM IS THE ONLY INSURANCE AGAINST RISK OF CONTAMINATION.

To be reasonably successful an open fermentation system should have floors, walls and ceilings lined with vitrified tile, and wooden fermenting vats must be without the slightest flaw and renewed frequently. The ordinary wood and brick cellars generally become impregnated with foul odors known as "cellar smells" which is absorbed by the beer, in an open fermenting vat. WATCH FOR IT and REJECT BEER that has any crumb, other than hops and malt.

A loose knot or stove joint, or shabby wood in a stove, will secrete enough bacteria to render every brew unhealthy and unfit to use.

A cellar or vat once infected can never be purified, except by destroying them, and most brewers will keep on using them, rather than incur the great expense of reconstruction.

IS IT NOT BETTER TO USE A BEER THAT IS NOT SUBJECTED TO DETERIORATING INFLUENCES?

BURNED TO DEATH.

Terrible Fate of Two Boys on an Electric Tower.

Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 20.—James Budd and Eugene Moss, aged sixteen years each, were burned to death here in an electric light tower to-night. It has been the practice of the boys playing in that neighborhood to climb the tower, which is 125 feet high, to a platform at the top. To-night, the Moss boy, while at the top, touched a wire carrying a heavy current, and instantly his body was a mass of flames. Young Budd attempted to rescue his companion, and both were killed.

Very often the hardest things to keep are promises.

The darkness of trouble oft casts new light on the premises.

The egotist is always the other fellow.
