

8. Prizes in Kind won by any member of the Detachment individually, in Matches open to individual competition, to become the property of the winner, if not inconsistent with the Wimbledon conditions under which such competition is held.

9. At the conclusion of the Matches at Wimbledon, and when relieved from duty by the Officer in Command, Return Tickets will be furnished to each member of the Detachment, from Wimbledon to the port of embarkation; thence by the Allan Line of steamships to Canada. Such members, after being so discharged from duty, may suit their own convenience as to the time for returning to Canada; but no expense will be paid on account of any member of the Detachment beyond the period necessary to complete the duty at Wimbledon and the time of sailing of the first steamer of the Allan Line from Liverpool to Quebec, after discharge.

10. The Officer Commanding will make requisite arrangements for the transport of the Members of the Detachment on their return, from Quebec to their homes.

11. Should any Member of the Detachment from the Provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick elect to return direct to Halifax, and in the event of any of the Allan Line of Steamships sailing from Liverpool to that port about the time, the Officer Commanding may authorize such arrangement, provided no further charge is made for the passage by the Steamship Company than that included in the Return Tickets to Quebec.

12. Each Member of the Detachment, on his being released from duty at Wimbledon, will sign an Acquittance Roll, to the effect that he has been properly settled with in accordance with these regulations.

13. The Officer in Command will, on the completion of the duty, forward a report to the Adjutant General of Militia on the manner in which the same has carried out, accompanied by the Acquittance Roll and Statement of Accounts of expenditure connected therewith, full details of shooting and conduct of the Members of the Detachment.

Approved,

P. ROBERTSON-ROSS,
Adjutant General of Militia, Canada.

Ottawa, 17th June, 1872.
