

The BEST New Books For CHRISTMAS Gifts

You who teach will soon be dismissing your classes for the Christmas holidays, and you look forward to many hours of quiet reading. You will enjoy turning your mind to books other than educational. Those that follow are all leaders this season, for the name MACMILLAN on a story means as much as it does on a text-book. We suggest you spend some time with

H. G. WELLS

WINSTON CHURCHILL

ALICE CHOLMONDELEY

ST. JOHN G. ERVINE

UPTON SINCLAIR

JACK LONDON

In many ways the most notable War Book is CHRISTINE

By Alice Cholmondeley.

Cloth, $1.25

It strikes the human note in a degree rarely achieved. Controversy has been raging round the question of whether CHRISTINE is fact or fiction. No other novel does so much to discover the incompatibility of the Hun with decent men and women: which, after all, is the keynote of the Great War.

THE SOUL OF A BISHOP

By H. G. Wells.

$1.50

A powerful epoch-making novel.

Mr. Wells thrashes out for himself and for all of us the question of the inability of religious dogma to be ample enough for the needs of the world to-day. Broadly, Mr. Wells tells us that to follow Christ one must rid oneself of mere CREEDS, and to be sincere one must estimate much lower the worth of mere SYMBOLS.

THE DWELLING PLACE OF LIGHT

By Winston Churchill.

$1.50

America, dynamic, changing, diverse, with new laws and old desires, new industries and old social rights, new people and old—this is the environment in which Mr. Churchill places the heroine of his new book.

The author has never written a more entertaining story; he has never written one that is more significant in its interpretation of human relationships to-day.

CHANGING WINDS

By St. John G. Ervine. $1.50

This is a remarkable book. It is the story of four young men, the Great War, and the Irish situation. It bristles with interest and as a war story has no equal but "Mr. Britling."

KING COAL

By Upton Sinclair. $1.50

A novel of the coal mines. It is a clear, convincing picture of the situation. The setting is vividly realized. We get every odour of the mines and the squalor and dread of the territory over which despotism extends.

MICHAEL,

BROTHER OF JERRY

By Jack London. $1.50

A wonderfully close second to "Call of the Wild," if indeed it is a second at all. A dog story such as Jack London alone could write.

AND FIVE CHARMING BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Each, $1.25

A MAID OF OLD MANHATTAN

By Alden A. Knipe and Emilie Benson Knipe. Illustrated.

ISABEL CARLTON

By Margaret Ashmun. Illustrated.

PEGGY OF ROUNDABOUT LANE

By Edna Turpin. Illustrated.

ELIZABETH BESS

By B. C. Scott. Illustrated.

THE ISLAND OF APPLEDORE

By Adair Aldon. Illustrated.
