Correspondence Invited.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND
KINGS CO., P.E.I.

MONTEAGUE, Dec. 18.—We are having a very wet fall, no frost yet, but a lot is to the stock. The shipping of produce is slow over. Prices are as follows: Beef, 7c to 7 1/2c; lamb, 50c to 55c; pork, 6c.

NOVA SCOTIA
CAPE BRETON CO., N.S.

SALMON RIVER, Dec. 17.—The freezing up of the ground has put a stop to flat plowing. Winter feeding is well under way. Prices are as follows: Hay, 10c; oats, 6c; potatoes, 81c; turnips, 65c; beef, 49c to 51c; hogs, 45c to 50c; hides, 15c. Beef cattle and feeders are getting scarce and almost impossible to buy. Lamb has long since disappeared. On the local market.—J. M.D.

ONTARIO
GRENVILLE CO., ONT.

DOMVILLE, December 21.—We are having quite a snow storm here and quite a few sleighs and cutters are out, but the weather is nice and the snow may stay and make the Christmas week very cheerful. Turkeys are 25c to 27c; peeps, 81c to 81 1/2c; other four second; ing; butter, 27c; eggs 40c to 50c. A good many of the farmers' cows are going to the front. Quite a few are only snow leaving the parents alone.—O.L.O.

NORFOLK CO., ONT.
PORT BURNELL, December 21.—The weather is mild and warm. Christmas trade is dull. Hogs are shipped at 85c a cut. Farmers are busy drawing wood for fuel. Eggs, 30c; butter, steady, at high. All classes of milk are scarce and high. All classes of stock very high. Dairy cows are giving a good flow of milk. Feeding dairy cows substantially is a very important factor in mixed farming.—P. E. H.

ALBERTA
EDMONTON DIST., ALTA.

ROBIN HILLS, Dec. 16.—We are having fine weather but no sleighing yet at all, though we had nice below zero. The weather is nice again. Farmers are very busy hauling as we have the Swift Canadian Packing Plant and the P. Burns Co. Packing Plant to supply with green feed, straw and hay. They are Gentlemen—Enclosed please find postal note at payment for my catalogue as it did in Farm and Dairy. It did the desired trick.

Sincerely yours,
R. W. JOHNSTON.

Short and to the point is this letter from one of our readers who keeps pure bred Holsteins and uses FARM AND DAIRY in selling his surplus stock.

Perhaps you are in the same position as Mr. Johnston was before he began to advertise in our FARM AND DAIRY in selling his surplus stock you have on hand.

We will be glad to assist you in single insertions or an Ad. to run throughout the year.

FARM & DAIRY, Peterboro, Ont.

feeding quite a number of cattle this winter. Hay is selling at $10; straw, 84c; green feed, 85c. Hogs are worth $7.75, 84c; vary, and $135 out of wagon. Fresh eggs are 40c; old, 35c. Flour has taken a rise, selling at $1.30 an owl for best quality. I will close wishing all the members of our Farmers Club a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year, including Farm and Dairy.

BRITISH COLUMBIA
NEW WESTMINSTER CO., B.C.

CHILLIWACK, Dec. 20.—The weather at present is very mild. The ground is bare and white frost has not been seen except this winter. Last year at this time there was a heavy snow, a day had, the coldest yet.

Two or three there was a little skating to be seen on the 15th Dec. The game birds are very scarce this year, although a crack shot secured many of the birds that were to be had. Shooting matches for ducks and geese are general here now.—N.C.

THE SALE AT MT. ELGIN.
A sale of registered Holsteins by Dec. 22nd, the highest price received was for King Sages of Forest Riders 10th, who was sold to E. C. Chambers, for $250. The majority of the other animals were realized being at the best prices.

NEW FOUR-YEAR-OLD RECORD
FARM AND DAIRY—I am pleased to be able to report to the Holstein Breeders' Association in the record for fat production of the semi-official year division, by producing in 365 consecutive days, 23,000 lbs. of milk containing 598.52 lbs. fat. She freshened at the age of 4 years, 10 months, 7 days, her date is Osa Pontiac Dec. 26, 1910; her dam is Lucille Jolie 7961. She was bred by Mr. A. Barick, Chargin Falls, Ohio; and she is now owned by Mr. Peter Small, Chesterland, Ohio. In the senior four-year class of this division she displaced Lindenwood No. 1155655, which produced in 365 days, 18,264.7 lbs. milk containing 516.4 lbs. fat.—M. H. Gardner.

JUDGES AT OTTAWA.
THE following judges have been appointed for the Ottawa Winter Fair to be held in Ottawa, Jan. 18th to 21st.

W. J. Squirrel, Guelph, Seeds.

An additional class, which will be of great interest to sheep breeders, has been added for the coming show, since the prize list was issued. The prize in this class is a strong fine lamb, value $50, donated by the Union Stock Yards, Toronto, through Mr. T. E. Good, Manager, for the best four lamb trial, bred from all lambs comprising the pen to be the same breed, grade or cross. All pure bred to be registered in the Canadian Flock Books and to be bred in Canada and bred by Canadian exhibitors entering this class will be required to make a regular entry.

HARDLY HIS FAULT.
OFFICER (severely): "Is this rifle supposed to have been cleaned?"

Replied: "Yes, well, sir—yes. But you know that these surratt gas are!" —Punch.
