TORONTO MARKETS.

Toronto, July 18th, 1889.

DRUGS.—Wholesalers report a brisk demand for Paris green. Quinine is inclined to be firmer, the bark is so cheap just now that shipments will likely be withheld and thus a better tone imparted. Opium is also firm. It is thought that insect powders, although recently lower, will advance on account of a shortage. Other lines do not call for any special reference.

FLOUR.—The situation is practically unchanged from that of last week, as to the amount of business being done. Sales have been fairly numerous, and made up chiefly of extras and straights on Quebec province account. We quote patent winter wheat $4.85 to 5.25; ditto spring, the same. Straight roller, $4.65 to 4.70; extra, $4.20 to 4.35; superfine, $3.50 to 3.60; strong bakers, $5.40 to 5.63. Bran about $10.75 to 11.00; oatmeal steady.

GRAIN.—Values of wheat have receded since our last, and to-day the various grades of fall and spring may be bought for about five cents
