European Intelligence.

BY THE R. M. STEAMER.

By the R. M. Steamer Niagara, which arrived at this port on Wednesday morning last, we have the following news:

GREAT BRITAIN.—There is improvement in the commercial markets, and in the textile trade of the country.—Money is abundant, and capitalists are eagerly seeking investments.—Iron maintains its price.—Wheat cannot fall much lower—Sugar not declined—Coffee dull—Tea on the decline—Rice lower—Cotton in increased demand without change of prices—British funds active—Railway stock advanced—gold mining shares much depressed.—Political news of no importance.—Hon. Alex. Rankin, of Miramichi, M. P. of New Brunswick died shortly before the Niagara left England, while on a visit to his brother, Mr. R. Rankin, at Bromborough-hall.—The first cargo of iron for the Egyptian Railway was despatched from Cardiff on March 26. Other cargoes will soon follow from various outports.—An order, it is said, has been received in England, for the construction of thirty iron steam boats, for the Danube Steam Navigation Company; to be supplied at Liverpool, the Clyde, and Newcastle.

IRELAND.—Emigration is going on to fully as great an extent as in any previous year, and from almost all parts of the country. From Belfast there has been a considerable emigration, particularly to Australia.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer has declined granting the £200,000 applied for to make a breakwater at Galway.

FRANCE.—A grand Review is so come off on May 10, when it is supposed, if not before, Louis Napoleon will be proclaimed as Emperor. Two thousand petitions have been presented for an Imperial Government.—Several political journals have been suppressed.—The confiscated Orleans estates of Neuilly and Moneaux are ordered to be sold.—A steam-frigate had left Bordeaux for Oran with 350 political prisoners on board.—Great drought prevails in the South of France.

ITALY.—The Neapolitan State trials are suspended for an indefinite period.—Navarro, President of the Court, is dying from gangrene in the foot.—Rome is full of foreigners to witness the ceremonies of the holy week.—English converts and British uniforms were lowly bowing before the papal footstool.—The failure of M. Maldini, banker of Bologna, for 600,000 francs, was announced.—The Verona, Pesciera, and Brescia Railway is to be finished before autumn, and to be protected by fortifications.—The island of San Giorgio is being fortified, and a fort is erecting to command the canals of Malamocco and Lido.

PORTUGAL.—The ordinary session of the Cortes closed on the 31st March. An extraordinary session of the Legislature will commence on May 28.—Intrigues for the curtailment of constitutional government in Portugal are on foot.—The Porto, Portuguese steamer, was lost on her passage from Oporto to Lisbon; all the passengers, thirty-six in number, perished, but seven of the crew were saved.

AUSTRIA.—Count Buol-Schauenstein is definitely appointed Imperial Minister of Foreign Affairs.—The death of Prince Schwartzberg, which took place at Vienna, April 5, it is said, will not lead to any change in the domestic or foreign policy of the Austrian government.

SPAIN.—A decree has been published by the government regulating in a sweeping manner the Press.—A further curtailment of constitutional government in Spain is anticipated.

DENMARK.—The new Constitution passed by the Diet for the Danish West India Islands, has been approved by the King.

TURKEY.—The inhabitants of Herzegovina have been ordered to be disarmed.—Turkish troops were expected at Duvno and Possuski.—The dispute between the Sultan and Pacha of Egypt seems likely to be settled by the concession of the power of life and death possessed by Mehmet Ali, at least for a period to be limited. The representatives of England, France and Russia have united in bringing about this adjustment.

AUSTRALIA.—Gold findings are still prodigious. The yield is said to be not less than £140,000 per week, and it is supposed it had actually reached £30,000 per day on the average.—Serious difficulties seem likely to arise, owing to the general rush of the population of the towns to the mines.

INDIA.—It is doubtful whether the expedition against the King of Ava will sail from Calcutta until the cold season sets in, in the meantime the frontiers of Assam, Chittagony, and Arracan, are exposed to the attacks of the enemy.

CHINA.—The insurrection at Kwang-si was extending; but the real force and position of the rebels were not known.—At Hong Kong, the European troops were in a much more healthy state for some time past.—Sir George Bonham, Governor of Hong Kong, is going home on leave.—The excess of the exports of tea, up to the 28th February, was 1,800,000 lbs. over last year. The decrease in the export of silk was 2763 bales.

The specimen of Crackers from the City Bakery of Mr. E. J. Jost warrants us in saying, that there is no necessity for foreign importations of that article. We go strongly for the encouragement of home manufactures, and hope Mr. Jost will receive that liberal patronage in his line which his enterprise demands. See advertisement.

We have received a neat pamphlet from the Agent of the Colonial Life Assurance Company, containing an excellent sermon on "Human Suffering and Heavenly Sympathy," by the Rev. W. Agar Adamson, D. C. L., which is well worthy of perusal in connection with Life Assurance.

Letters and Monies Received.
