BEWARE

of the store who constantly preaches about their honesty, and at the same time thinking everybody is dishonest. We say that with prejudice. We are here to do business, but at the same time we don't want to hurt any other house by any mean act or saying. It's a straight forward business we are doing. You'll never hear us firing dirt at other stores. You'll never find us trying to drown other smaller concerns by trying to throw false impressions upon their advertising. No, no, we're building up a business on principle as well as honesty.

A game of base ball was played in Port Elgin, on Saturday between Skipness and Port Elgin clubs. The game was fairly well contested and the score being close made it quite interesting to the numerous spectators. The score stood 19 to 22 in favor of Skipness.

An escaped lunatic, named Manly R. Martin, created some amusement for the citizens, of Exeter, one day last week. He claimed a relationship to the Queen, and considering that he had been insulted by her Majesty, wrote a lengthy telegram to the Queen, instructing the operator to collect. He was soon taken in charge by the officials and returned to London.

Edward Bok, the editor of The Ladies' Home Journal, has written a book for young men, "Successward: A Young man's Book for young Men," which the Revells will publish in a fortnight. The book aims to cover all the important phases of a young man's life: his business life, social life, his amusements, religious life, dress, his attitude toward women and the question of his marriage. This is Mr. Bok's first book.

The "Ledger" a paper printed at New Denver, B. C. says, "We print every Thursday. Wet weather, snow slides, hard times, or the sheriff never hinders its publication. We do not dream of making a million but expect to make a luxurious living. To accommodate the public we do Job printing at prices that do not discord with the despondent price of silver."

On Sunday morning about three o'clock burglars broke into Laman's gent's furnishing establishment, carrying away a large amount of stock, including a number of wedding suits. They also made an attempt to enter Ben's dry goods store, but having attracted attention, made their escape. It is supposed to be the work of professionals, and as yet no clue has been found as to their whereabouts. This is the third time this establishment has been entered within a year.

A contemporary says that news-paper subscriptions are infallible tests of men's honesty. They will sooner or later discover the man. If he is dishonest he will cheat the printer in some way—say he has paid what he has not—declared that he has a receipt somewhere—or sent the money and it was lost in the mail—or take the paper and not pay for it—or move off, leaving it come to the office he left.

M. Disch while engaged painting Mr. Klemp's hotel, Walkerton, last Friday fell from the ladder to the sidewalk, a distance of about 25 feet and met with injuries which caused his death on Tuesday.
