Local Affairs.

Mr. Geo. Greer, of Lucknow, was in town early in the week.

Mrs. J. W. Green and children leave Friday, for a month's visit in Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skilling have been visiting relatives in Gorrie during the past week.

Reeve Cook and Deputy Reeves Ferguson and Graham are in Goderich this week attending county council.

Miss Lucie Downey, operator at the Bluevale post office, spent Sunday with her friend Miss McIntyre, of the Gorrie post office.

Postmaster Farrow and lady, of Brussels and Postmaster Timmins and bride, of Bluevale, were guests at Postmaster Perkins in this village on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Welch and children, of Toronto, are making a short holiday visit with the lady's parents in Gorrie. Their many friends here are pleased to see them.

Mr. R. M. Hazelwood and bride, of Clifford, attended the opening on Sunday. "Mills" has been quite prosperous in Clifford and is a member of the council in that village.

An assembly was held by a party of invited ladies and gentlemen in the town hall last Friday evening. It was the first of the kind given in this village for many years. A tasty lunch was served about midnight and dancing was continued until an early hour the following morning. The affair passed off pleasantly and was an enjoyable success.

Mr. Jno. McLaughlin, 6th con., had a bee on Monday hauling wood and hay from the farm to his new home in Fordwich into which he will shortly move. A good day's work was done after which the young people gathered and held a pleasant dance, in which John led off in the Scotch reel in fine style. Mr. T. K. Boddy and others favored the company with some excellent songs during the evening.

It is now an assured fact that Gorrie and Wroxeter will be lit by electricity, Messrs. Gibson Bros., of the Wroxeter saw mill, having taken hold of the matter. Poles are being got out and it is expected the plant will be in running order in about six weeks. Gorrie business men have given liberal contracts for light, but no provision has yet been made for lighting the streets. Some steps should be taken at once so that the two villages may be lighted up simultaneously.

Mr. John Ferguson, son of Mr. Edward Ferguson, of Orange Hill, passed away on Saturday last after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Deceased was a young man of fine qualities and had many friends. He was a member of the Orange Hill O. Y. B., and his remains were interred in Gorrie on Monday with the honors of that Society. The family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

The death of Mrs. E. W. Leech occurred in Detroit on Friday last. She had been in delicate health for a long time, but since the tragic death of her sister a few months ago, which was reported in the GAZETTE at the time, she grew rapidly worse so that the end was not unexpected. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Abram Jackson, and was a resident of Gorrie, where she was married about 16 years ago, since which time she has frequently visited this village renewing and enjoying her acquaintances. She was a consistent member of the Methodist church and for some time occupied the position of organist in the church here. The news of her demise causes a sensation of profound sorrow in this section.

A shooting match occurred on the millpond here on Tuesday between the Listowel and Gorrie Gun clubs which resulted in the defeat of our boys by the following score:

The neat, quiet, steady work done by the new mill is an agreeable surprise.

Mr. Lounsbury's perseverance has eventually had its reward. There are a fair quantity of logs coming in, yet we trust the number may keep increasing and that the farmers will do all in their power to encourage this so worthy an undertaking. The mill is so constructed that but few men are required to keep it going. The head sawyer and proprietor, Mr. Lounsbury, is a workman of fame; Robt. Greenly, an engineer, is likewise the same; Jess Harrison, tail sawyer, is at his post every day, while Elijah rolls the logs and shovels the saw-dust away. Young Will Lounsbury, as chore-boy, completes the array, and is quite a lumberman, we hear the folks say.

Though the roads were, in some places almost impassable, Rev. Mr. Potter's lecture on the American War, on Thursday night, brought out a good crowd. Those whose misfortune it was to be absent missed a treat, as we think all present relished the lecture. For two hours the audience was kept spell-bound and interested, the relating facts of which he was a personal observer, then interspersing his talk by a song and recitation, samples of those given over in their leisure moments. From their enlisting at Rochester he traced their life, step by step, commenting on their training, the perils and privations of a picquet, a scout, then the nature of a raid, and finally the battles, the battle battles and then the hospital. Mr. Potter's fluency and faculty of presenting things so plainly proves that it is not only in the pulpit that he shines as a light. The sum realized was about $10.

WARPS.—Our shoemakers hold out better than the opposition in the other lines. C. Horton is getting a stock of boots and shoes from Toronto and will be in a position to hold out against the invincible Halliday....Mr. Geo. Tackaberry, who put in part of his apprenticeship in our burg some years ago, but who has for some time past been in Belmore, bids adieu to that hamlet this week, and will hereafter be employed by Mr. Miller, of Clifford....Mr. N. Nelson has received the contract of delivering 15 cords of wood at the school....Mr. Akel, of Mildmay, was in town this week, trying to for a second time to trade properties with Mr. Horton....Many of our burghers suffered from the severe frosts of the past week. Their cellars were entered by "Jack" and potatoes and other vegetables destroyed....Our organist and vocalist went to Fordwich on Friday night to take part in the Foresters' concert. Outside tell us they acquitted themselves creditably.

Fordwich.

The Methodist anniversary on Sunday, 16th inst., was a pronounced success. Three services were held. The pastor, Rev. S. C. Edmunds B.D., conducted the morning services. Rev. A. Potter, of Clifford, preached to the children in the afternoon, and more particularly to the teachers and parents in the evening. All the sermons were very satisfactory and gracious influences for good will follow the exposition of the scriptures in the practical thought presented. The Monday evening entertainment was a treat all round. There were about thirty pieces spoken or sung, and all were first class. The singing, both on the Sabbath day and on Monday evening, was all done by the children and was sweet and well rendered, Miss S. Clegg presiding at the organ. It was somewhat amusing to see over 60 children seated, in the alcove on seats raised back of each other, until the boys on the highest seats were so elevated that when they arose their heads nearly touched the ceiling; and some of them gave their recitation from their lofty perch. A well-merited vote of thanks was given to the children, to the organist, to those who had trained the children for the occasion and to the ministers, Revs. J. Greene, of Gorrie, and A. Potter, of Clifford, who so kindly responded to the invitation to be present. Word came by telegram on Saturday afternoon that the minister who had arranged to be present could not come, then Rev. Mr. Potter merited the good will of the people by responding to a telegram which only reached him after seven o'clock that evening. The Sabbath collections were good, amounting to $7, which, with the entertainment, brought the receipts up to $29.

The Foresters' concert last Friday evening was a success. Sara Lord Bailey proved to be a splendid elocutionist. Mr. A. W. Halladay, of Lakelet sang in good style and was well received. The orchestra is deserving of special praise. The proceeds amounted to $40.

A box social is to be held in connection with the Royal Templars on the evening of Feb. 17th. No pains will be spared to make this the best entertainment of the season.

Mr. H. J. Spence, the brilliant Canadian orator, delivered a most interesting address on "Canada and Her Future," the other evening. The lecture was a grand one and closely followed by the audience. Mr. Thos. Gibson filled the chair in an able manner.

Misses A. James, and M. Braden and Mr. Ed. Gibson spent Sunday last with friends in and around Atwood.

Wroxeter.

"Miss A. M. Bowes, the elocutionist, won golden opinions from the audience, 'Aunt Melissa on Boys' being particularly good."—Guelph Daily Herald. This lady will appear at the Foresters' concert on Friday evening, Feb. 3rd.

"We have lately been visited by Miss Knox, Miss Alexander and Sara Lord Bailey, but in our opinion Miss Bowes excels them all."—Bruce Herald.

Mr. Fred Orr, who got his foot injured in a fall about a month ago, is recovering.

Messrs. Geo. Dané and T. Miller, are somewhat ill with lagrippe.

Large numbers from here attended the church opening at Gorrie.

"Miss Bowes' reading 'The Dandy Fifth' was well received, and in response to an encore she recited 'The Sailor's Yarn.' In the second part of the program she gave 'Merricks' Conversion,' a humorous recitation which evoked convulsions of laughter."—Canadian Forester.

Reply to "How is It?"

Editor Gazette.—I noticed in your last issue an article, headed "How is It," relative to a question that I asked Mr. Kaine at our nominations, viz., if he had levied a special rate last year and made full provisions for our sinking fund on the W. G. & B. and T. G. & B. railway debentures according to law. Mr. Kaine stated before the electors that he had. Now in reply to the question asked by "How is It?" I am forced to state that Mr. Kaine, twice for last year, never submitted this question to his council, and that he is positively no trustee in the council minutes that he did so; and the minutes show that not one dollar for that purpose was raised by special rate according to law. And also the $895 which I received as a premium on our T. G. & B. debentures, instead of Mr. Kaine placing that in the hands of our township treasurer when he took office in January, 1892, which the law requires he should have done, every dollar of it was spent before this year's taxes were collected. I am sorry this is so as it is in direct violation of our by-laws under which the debentures were renewed. However, we will do our duty this year and levy the special sinking fund rate as the statute requires. Hoping this will be satisfactory to "How is It?" as he deserves a candid answer, I am,
Respy, B. S. Cook.

Mr. Clegg and the Town Hall.

Editor Gazette.—As I understand the Reeve, Mr. B. S. Cook, has been writing to some of his friends in Gorrie exonerating himself and council from any blame or responsibility in the matter of renting the township hall for a dancing party, I think it my duty to place myself right before the electors of the township and give them an opportunity of placing the responsibility for the care of township property where it properly belongs. Now in order to do so I will give a plain statement of what took place between myself, Mr. Walker and the council board. I granted the hall to Mr. Walker for a dancing party, but on Monday morning, the day on which the council met, I went to Mr. Walker and stated to him that on account of certain rumors I had heard that I would have to lay the matter before the council and that if they consented to let them have it, all right, and if not they would have to put up with the inconveniences that the refusal would involve. Without waiting for me to introduce the matter the council called me into J. Campbell's hotel, as Mr. Cook said, to talk the matter over, when I stated exactly what had taken place between Mr. Walker and myself, which I am prepared to prove at any time. After considering the matter for a short time the Reeve put the question to each member of the Board and every man of them gave a most emphatic no, some of them stating that if they did so the ratepayers would be onto them. Remember now, notwithstanding anything that the Board may say they were thoroughly acquainted with all the facts concerning the matter in hand. After partaking of a sumptuous dinner and reparing to the far-famed township hall they went into solemn conclave and took, as they would have us believe, a more calm and deliberate view of the situation, and, whether it was the dinner or the presence of half a dozen ratepayers that affected it, at all events they entirely ignored the little meeting which they held with their caretaker at the Anglo-American, or by misrepresenting what took place (if I am rightly informed) they shifted the responsibility from their own devoted shoulders and passed a unanimous resolution to hold me as caretaker until Monday, the 29th inst., until this wonderful affair should be past. Now, Mr. Editor, you have the picture of five councilmen in private meeting convened to consider this matter arrive at an unanimous decision, then an hour afterwards, in the presence of a few electors, make a clear backdown and swallow their own words. I leave your readers to judge between us. I, at least, have the satisfaction of knowing that what I said in private was substantiated in public. Hoping, Mr. Editor, that you will pardon me for trespassing on your time and space, I am, Yours,
Wm. H. Clegg.

P. S.—Had Mr. Cook not taken the trouble to write private letters to his friends in regard to the matter I would let the matter drop.
