PROGRESS OF THE WAR

[September 28 to October 4] N the last day of the week under fifteenth month, without any circumstance pointing to its early termination.

In the western sphere of hostilities important changes were made in the positions of the contending forces from those occupied at the close of the weel preceding. The gains made by the Allies in that week were retained, for the mos part, though between La Bassée canal and Hullich the Germans succeeded in regain-ing some of the trenches from which they had been driven. Further south, nea Givenchy, the Allies gained some importtant elevated ground; and in the Cham pagne district they held effectively mos of the ground previously taken. Bombardment of Belgian coast towns by the Allied ffeet took place during the week; and a number of successful raids were made by air craft on German military
