Ellis Moves For New Trial

[By Special Wire to The Courier]
 CHICAGO, March 11.—Motion for a new trial for William Cheney Ellis, Cincinnati leather merchant and convicted wife murderer, will be considered by Judge Pettit, who tried Ellis, to-morrow.

Ellis' counsel has intimated that the motion will not be pressed, as the 15-year sentence given his client was regarded as a virtual victory for the defense.

Regarding the proposition of converting the Armouries into an exhibition hall for 'Made in Brantford' products, Mr. Blain stated that it is one of the chief essentials of the Old Home Week. Brantford has many industries which are scarcely known to the majority of the citizens of this city regardless of the outside world, and by turning the Armouries into an exhibition hall, the Old Boys who will visit the city will go away greatly enlightened as to the vast number of industries which their old home has.

Brantford is a leading manufacturing city and Mr. Blain is of the opinion that no better way of advertising the city could be found than by his proposed scheme.

As to the cost, Mr. Blain said that that item would be comparatively small. In Hamilton, the committee turned both Armouries into an exhibition hall and erected booths to the manufacturers at the actual cost of their erection and in so doing they came out clear at the end of the week.

The Daughters of the Empire had a tea garden in one of the halls and after paying expenses for the week turned over to the committee over one thousand dollars. A charge of 10 cents was put on the doors which at the end of the week were some $4000 in pocket. The only difficulty arising in this city would be the size of the hall. However a tent could be erected outside which would overcome this difficulty.

Mr. Blain stated that he had no doubt but that the manufacturers would fall in line with his idea if it were properly put before them.

Ex-Ald. J. H. Minshall.
 Ex-Ald. J. H. Minshall, when asked his opinion on the proposition, said, "It is one of the best propositions laid before the committee and would be one of the best features of the Old Home Week."

John B. Muir.
 "One of the best features of the week and our company for one, will take a space if the proposition goes through."

Ald. Geo. A. Ward.
 "In itself, the proposition would be one of the best advertisements to the city, but it is just a question as to the advisability of holding it in conjunction with the Bell Memorial next year."

Prosecutors Conclude Case

Jehn Love Elliott at Lewes England, Held on Very Serious Charge

[By Special Wire to The Courier]
 LEWES, England, March 11.—In the trial of Jehn Love Elliott of New York at the assizes here on charges of flagrant breaches of the law, the case for the prosecution in regard to Florence Elliott, his younger daughter, concluded to-day.

Elliott was then examined by counsel, the questioning lasting an hour, after which the court adjourned. It is expected that his examination will occur on the whole of to-morrow's session.

The trial started on Monday, and is held behind closed doors. The charges against Elliott were brought by the public prosecutor on affidavits sworn to by Elliott's neighbors, who declared they were made on statements by the two daughters of the prisoner, with whom they resided at East Grinstead, Sussex.

PERSEVERANCE

If a successful man boasts that he is self-made, do not believe him unless he shows that he is still at his task.

Major G. W. Stephens has decided to contest the Montreal Mayoralty election on the 6th prox with Mr. Martin.

SLOGAN FOR OLD HOME WEEK, 'MADE IN BRANTFORD'

Secretary Blain Picks Up Suggestions—Abolish the Ticker.

Efforts Made to Prevent All Kinds of Unnecessary Rowdiness.

"Made in Brantford" is the latest suggestion for Old Home Week in this city.

Mr. F. S. Blain, general secretary of the celebration, was in Hamilton yesterday in conference with Mr. Chas. Merton regarding the methods used by the Centennial Committee in their celebration last year.

Mr. Merton very kindly gave Mr. Blain a lot of useful hints on how to conduct the celebration, advising him on the best form of entertainments and also the things which would be best to eliminate.

Principal amongst the latter class was the sale of the ticker, which last year caused so many fights and was perhaps the chief cause of most of the rowdiness in Hamilton.

Mr. Merton strongly advised Mr. Blain to prohibit the sale of the ticker altogether.
