Pain-Killer

(PERRY DAVIS')
From Capt. F. Love, Police Station 126, St. Montreal: "We frequently use Perry Davis' Pain-Killer for pains in the stomach, rheumatism, all kinds of neuralgic affections, cramps, and all afflictions which befall men in our position. I have no hesitation in saying that Perry-Killer is the best remedy I have ever used."

Paine's Celery Compound Cures and Gives You New Life When Everything Else Fails

IT IS THE POPULAR MEDICINE IN THE HOMES OF THE
WEALTHY AND THOSE
IN HUMBLER CIR-CUMSTANCES

Beware of Substitutes and Imitations

Are you ailing, rundown, or suffering from some dangerous disease?
If you are, allow us with candour and an honest interest in your well-fare, to direct your attention to Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that "makes sick people well."

The wonderful record of cures wrought for sick and distressed people in our Dominion, is the best and strongest proof of the health-restoring virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. It has cured the most desperate and obstinate cases of disease even after sufferers were pronounced incurable.

The use of one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound will in all cases banish the doubts of the unbeliever.
The testing of one bottle will prove to all sufferers that there are virtues in the wonderful medicine possessed by no other remedy—virtues that banish suffering and misery.

The immense popularity of Paine's Celery Compound has induced unscrupulous people to put up vile and worthless imitations of the great health-restorer. Dishonest dealers for the sake of large profits resort to substituting and recommending the "something just as good." At all times be wary of imitations and substitutes.
See that the name PAINE'S and the Stalk of Celery appear on each bottle.

Read the strong testimony of Mr.
G. W. Parks of Inglewood, N. S., cured by Paine's Celery Compound after failures with other medicines:

"While at sea I was taken sick, which compelled me to abandon my work and seek home and rest. I consulted the doctor who pronounced it slow fever or typhoid. I suffered severely from night sweats, and from cold chills during the day. Added to this, I was extremely nervous, which weakened me and reduced my flesh until I was a mere skeleton. This continued until last winter, when my wife and friends began to despair of my recovery. At the medicines I took produced no good and I was growing weaker. Through the influence of Rev. C. M. Tyler, I was induced to give Paine's Celery Compound a trial. I can truly say it worked wonders. The first bottle gave me great relief, and five bottles completely cured me.

THE BURGLAR'S BIBLE.

He Said That He Would Get It Back Again, and He Did.

Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin when a young man was attorney for two men charged with stealing.
There had been taken from the men a well worn Bible and a small drawer.
On the fly leaf of the Bible was the inscription, "To My Darling Boy, From Mother."

The trial was held the next day, and the future senator made a brilliant speech to the jury. He exhibited the Bible and pointed to the inscription, and without leaving their seats the jury returned a verdict of "Not guilty."

After the trial the young men gave the lawyer $50.

"Boys," said Mr. Spooner as they were about to separate, "I am curious to know why you carry that Bible and the empty drawer." Then the senator listened with astonishment to the history of his clients.

"We are professional safe blowers and have been for five years. This Bible has a double cover and opens like this" (here the self-confessed criminal pressed a hidden spring in the thick cover and disclosed a hollow in which there lay two steel files and a small saw), "and this old drawer has a secret bottom, where we keep our tools."

The future senator confiscated the Bible and the drawer.

One of the thieves shouted angrily, "We'll get those things back yet, you mark my words!"

Several years passed, and then the incident was brought back to Mr.
Spooner's recollection in the following manner: One evening he and his family attended an entertainment, and no one was left at the house. When they returned at a late hour, they found that the house had been entered by burglars and ransacked, but that nothing apparently was missing. The next day's mail brought a letter which read:

Dear Sir—Please excuse the way we came in last night, but the door was locked. We never did think you treated us square by sending our outfit, and so we came back after it and found you were not at home. We always keep our week. Yours truly,
—Saturday Evening Post.

THE BARGAIN CRAZE.

Men, It is Alleged, Are as Much Infected as the Women.

"This perennial joke about the love of women for bargains wears me," said a bright business woman the other day. "With most presumptuous superiority men charge our sex with an extravagant zeal for bargains, but I see enough of business men to assure me that they are just as eager as women are to get an article at a few cents less than the usual price."

"Mr. A. is generally extravagant in his personal expenditures, but he is keen after bargains. The other day he came into our office wearing an air of great satisfaction, and his jubilation had no other foundation than the discovery of a street stand where 'seconds' in lead pencils were sold at 2c. each."

"If you know a good pencil when you see it," he explained, "you can run mage in the pile and pick out 5 and 10 cent pencils at 2 cents each or three for 5."

"And that reminds me of another bargain. You know the 10 cent cigars I smoke? Well, there is a little shop down near the ferry where you can get them four for a quarter. I just heard of the place and ran down there at luncheon time and filled my pockets with Great bargains."

"And would you believe it, that man, whose transactions run into the millions, went on telling my employer of bargains in clothes, stationery, etc., and Mr. B. stopped in the midst of his estimates on a big contract to note addresses and to tell Mr. A. of bargains he had discovered in underwear and shoes and household supplies."

"Yet women are said to monopolize the bargain hunting disease."—New York Press.

Cost of a London Fog.
A London fog is an expensive visitation. A day of it, counting the day at eight hours, is estimated to cost anything from $50,000 to $100,000 in hard cash. No small proportion of this goes to the gas and electric light companies, which have to supply about a third more power than usual. But there are also the railways. Fog signaling is expensive. At Clapham Junction alone £50 has been spent by a single railway company during a day's fog in extra pay to the plate layers. When the red light cannot be seen at a distance of a hundred yards, the plate layers become fog signallers, and for this they are paid a shilling a day in addition to their regular wages and fourpence per hour overtime, providing the overtime does not run into a second shilling.—London Chronicle.

When Mr. Gladstone was alive, he was once discussing with some friends at Hawarden castle the greatest day in the world's history. Each member of the group was asked to say on which day he, in the past or the future, would prefer to live, it being supposed that he should have his present knowledge and afterward return to his present existence. Mr. Gladstone chose a day in Greece when Athens was at its highest glory.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC, on the authority of one of the comrades of the unfortunate man, tells the following story:—Trooper Collins, of the 7th Dragoons (formerly to General Pole Carew) was carried away at night by a lion from Koomati Valley and was mauled to death. The lion came from the bush to the camp fire, where Collins was sitting, and he carried him off to the left of the bush, where his body was found the next morning. About 400 mounted troops were stationed there at the time, but owing to the darkness no one was able to follow in time to be of assistance.

New Color in the Cheeks Richness in the Blood

And Health, Vigor and Strength in the Whole System When Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food is Used.

Pallor of the gums, lips and inside of eyelids, nervousness, weakness, indigestion, headache and despondency, are the symptoms common to chlorosis and anaemia.

These symptoms indicate that the blood is thin and watery, and does not contain sufficient nourishment—symptoms that disappear when Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is used to build up the body and fill the shrivelled arteries with rich, red, life-sustaining blood.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a special formula devised especially for all diseases arising from an exhausted condition of the blood and nerves, and has proved signally successful as a cure for anaemia and chlorosis.

In fact it cannot fail to cure these ailments, because it goes directly to form new red corpuscles in the blood, and so nourishes and restores the system to health and vigor.

It is of incalculable worth to women suffering from the weaknesses and irregularities peculiar to their sex, and is evidenced by the grateful testimonials published from time to time in the daily press.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great blood builder and nerve restorative; 50 cents a box at all dealers, or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Toronto.

An old lady, who is very much of stay and finally said to one of the children, "I'm going away directly, of the way with me." "Can't do it.

We are going to have dinner as soon as you leave," replied Stanley.

Raw, Flaming Eczema,
Scald Rheum and Scald Head

The Dreadful Itching and Burning is Promptly Relieved and the Disease Thoroughly Cured by Dr.
Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. A. McKnight, Kirkwall, Wellington County, Ont., writes:—"I feel it my duty to let you know what Dr. Chase's Ointment has done in a very bad case of eczema on my baby. We had tried any number of cures without any permanent relief, but when the hour we commenced using Dr. Chase's Ointment there was great relief, and the improvement continued, until there was complete cure. We think it the greatest of family ointments."

Mrs. R. Stoddard, Delhi, Ont., writes:
"I was troubled with psoriasis or chronic eczema for twelve years; used many remedies during that time, but got no relief. Doctored with four or five doctors, but found no cure. I decided to try a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before using half of the box found great relief. I have used about three boxes, and am now completely cured, and have recommended it to many others. It is the best I have ever used, and it is worth its weight in gold."

There is nothing to be compared with Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for the most obstinate and torturing skin diseases. Its cures are often truly marvellous. 50c a box at all dealers, or

Crutches

Mrs. Wells, of Mochelle, Annapolis, Annapolis Co., writes:

May 8th, 1900

"I am an old woman, nearly eighty years of age. Sometime ago I fell and injured my hip. I was afterwards troubled with Sciatica; at times my sufferings were intense; I could not get about my room without the aid of a pair of crutches. I tried many remedies; none did me any good; some of them made me worse.
At last I read of Egyptian Rheumatic Oil and tried that. I am happy to say that it has given me great relief, removing the pain and enabling me to move around much better than I could. I think Egyptian Rheumatic Oil a splendid liniment for use in cases of Rheumatism."
