

Bell and Dominion Organs and Pianos

Now the evenings are getting longer the call for indoor entertainment becomes more insistent, a good plan to follow is to have good music in your home and keep the young people where you can vouch for the amusement.

There are no better Pianos or Organs made

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Roscoe De Wolfe who was killed in action on October 24th 1916.
From Mother and Sisters.

In sad and loving memory of Stephen U Godkin who entered into rest October 22nd 1918

Oft we think of you dear father And our hearts are sad with pain Oh! this earth would be a heaven Could we but hear your voice again

Three long years since you left us How we miss your smiling face But you left us to remember None on earth could fill your place
Wife and family

In loving memory of Eliza Wescombe who died March 23rd 1921.

Oh! children dear, I'm leaving you There's nothing now can save— Beneath the sod I soon shall sleep In the cold and silent grave.

I'm getting colder, children dear With every passing breath, Oh, kiss me, children, once again E're my eyelids close in death.

I hear the angel's calling, Yes, calling me to come To that best place where there's no pain, To my eternal home.

Thus our mother whispered While beside her dying bed, Stood her children so sadly weeping E're her gentle spirit fled.

In the cold grave now she's lying In the church-yard on the hill No more we'll hear her pleasant voice Her footsteps never more.

And while fond children weep her loss And sorrow more and more, We have the hope to meet again Upon a happier shore.

Written by her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Watson.

Reception of Students

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church entertained the Staff and Students of the High School and others on Monday evening October 10 in the Sunday School room.

After the singing of the Maple Leaf Rev. S. F. Newton led in prayer. Miss Grace Conlon, convener of the Social Committee, very ably occupied the chair. Four members of the High School Staff were present and practically all the Students. A hearty welcome was extended to all by Misses Conlon and Mildred Sheridan B. A, president of the League. A musical program consisting of several numbers, instrumental and vocal was well rendered and much enjoyed. Partners were secured by the auctioning of the male members of the party, producing great merriment. At the conclusion a dainty lunch was served to which full justice was done and at 10 p. m. the National Anthem was sung. The Epworth League this coming winter should fill a large place in the moral, intellectual and social life of our young people.

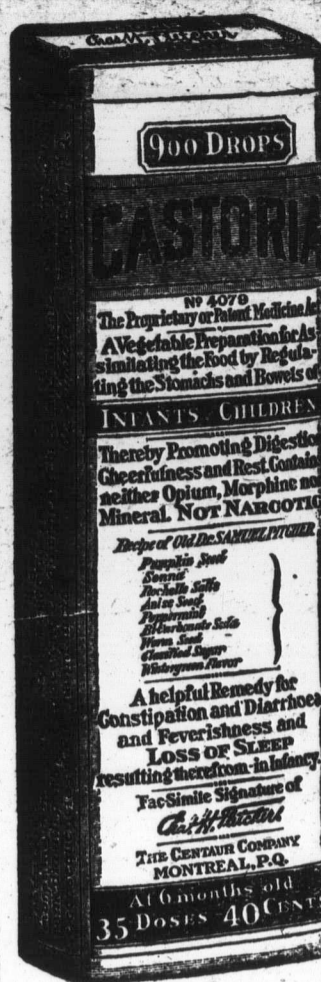

Guidboard Corners.

In the passing away of Mr. John Mackie, we all feel the loss of a good man — a man of most genial personality, one whom it was good to meet, either by the wayside, or in enjoying the hospitality of his pleasant home. Our sympathy is very much with his widow and other members of the family.

Mrs. H. W. Coleman and Miss Dorothea Wight have been very ill, but under the care of Drs. Harte and Paul, they are both now convalescent Mr. Jas. Sheldon's health has not been up to the usual mark the past few days, although he is up and about.

Mr. Jack Coleman to-day returned from the West. He speaks in glowing terms of that country but still prefers the East, for the present at least.

What are our poets doing these days of gay woods and golden air fanned by the winds of the Sunny South.
