HARWICH WEDDING

A very happy event took place on the evening of Sept. 6th at the residence of Mr. Robert Taylor, Harwich, it being the marriage of their eldest daughter Ethel Pearl to Mr. Loftus Johnson, a prosperous young farmer of the same Township. The officiating ministers were neices of the bride Revs. D. E. Martin, of London, and J. W. Baird, B. A., of Saraia. The bride was assisted by Miss Helen Grant, of Mull, and the groom by Mr. Edgar Johnston, of Bridge End. Miss Eloise V. Baird, of Sarnia, acting as flower girl. The bride wore a beautiful white silk dress trimmed with silk applique and a full bridal weil caught with a diamond crescent and carried a boquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was beautifully attired in a pale blue voile trimmed with silk over lace and carried a boquet of pink carnations, and the bequet of pink carnations, and the little maid of honor was daintily dressed in white India silk over pink. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful crescent set with diamonds; to the bridesmaid a gold brooch with diamond settings; to the maid of honor a gold pin set with pearls and rubies.

The floral decorations were of lilies and carnations upon a background of ferns. The bridal party took their places to the strains of the wedding march played by the sister of the bride, Miss Edith, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The ministers stood under an arch of evergreens and flowers and the contracting parties before an altar of ferns and carnations. About 60 guests were present, all immediate relatives of the bride and groom. After the rusual congratulations and wedding dinner the happy couple left for Toronto and other points east on a short the reception was most important, their green was most important, and the validation.

THE REFERENDUM.

Professor Goldwin Smith Addresses The Farmers' Association of Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 9.—In an address by Mr. Goldwin Smith to the convention of the Farmers' Association in Victoria Hall yesterday morning, upon the question of the party system of Government, urged the farmers to organize for the coming electem of Government, urged the farmers to organize for the coming elections, Dominion and Provincial, and to pledge candidates to keep out of the caucus. Replying to a vote of thanks, Mr. Smith said there were two things for consideration by the electors: the adoption of the referendum, for which he saw great use in the settlement of questions which should be taken out of politics, and the superseding of party conventions superseding of party conventions the selection of candidates by a preliminary ballot of all qualified to vote to determine who should be the candidates.

Mr. W. F. Maclean and Prof. Mc Mr. W. F. Maclean and Prof. Mc-Curdy also delivered addresses, the first on Government ownership and the last on militarism. The associ-ation adopted questions to candi-dates, a platform in a series of re-solutions, and elected its officers.

THE LIGHT PROBLEM

"After the municipal elections, the very first thing that I did when I was appointed chairman of the Property committee," remarked Chairman John Edmondson, "I waited on every member of the Council and asked them to go up to the power house de them to go up to the power house de them to go up to the power house de them to go up to the power house. The old dynamo was overloaded and liable to go up at any time. The Property committee was instructed to get prices and find out what a new dynamo could be purchased for. The committee brought in a report to the Council and recommended the purchase of a Westinghouse dynamo, the cheapest and best. That report urging the Council and recommendation of the Property committee had been carried out the city would have had light long ago. Finally the Council and was voted down by the Council and was voted down by the Council and three times I brought up the matter urging the Council to purchase a new dynamo. After having seen so many poor attractions and plays of indifferent merit, it was a real treat to watch "The Heart of Texas" at the theatre last might. The play, the stars, the mst night. The play, the stars, the empany, the scenery, in fact every-thing connected with the production, was more than satisfactory and the audience showed its appreciation by regional and hearty analysis. was more than satisfactory and the audience showed its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The Den scene in act three and the last act were especially sensational and thrilling, and gave Allan Villair and Pearl Lewis splendid opportunities for dramatic work and they more than filled all requirements. Mr. Villair has a valuable piece of property in "The Heart of Texas" and the part of Jack Harvey fits him like a glove, and Miss Lewis who, by the way, is a little beauty, possessing a wealth of hair that any princess would be proud of, will have a hard time finding a more congenial role than Texas.—Port Jervis Republican.

This superb attraction is booked for one solid week at the Grand Opera. House, starting Monday, Sept. 12. A different play and specialties each night. They made a big hit at the Park, Brantford, for four weeks, Ladies 15c. for best 30c. seats for Monday night only, to see "Her Strange Wedding."
