NERVES ALL GONE TO PIECES

"Fruit-a-lives" Conquered Nervous Prostration

R. R. No. 4, GILBERT PLAINS, MAN.

"In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; dropping from 170 to 115 pounds.

The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-lives".

I began to mend almost at once, and never had such good health as I have enjoyed the past eight years. I am never without "Fruit-a-lives" in the house". JAS. S. DELGATY.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Town Topics

We are sorry to learn that there are still one or two cases of Small Pox at Hill Spring, although these are said to be on the rancher rather than in the village. No fatalities are recorded and all have recovered without serious complications resulting.

The Pantry sale by the 2nd Ward Mutual, as well as the Confectionery Sale by the Y. L. Stake Board, were well patronized on Saturday last and certainly satisfied all comers. The quality of the goods offered made them sell and then the ladies are always successful in making sales.

Mr. J. C. Woodland is one of the brightest young men in the Fire Insurance line who has visited Cardston for sometime. He made a visit to the Temple and was very much interested in what he saw and heard of the Mormons. He is representing as Inspector the General Fire Assurance Corporation of Perth, Scotland.

Some four families are quarantined for Small Pox. The cases have been light and in each instance thus far prompt action in vaccinating has prevented the other members of the family from having it. One case only to the family shows good result. Care in this matter should see very few others afflicted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Card were visitors at Lethbridge on Friday and Saturday. They paid a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brown and family. His many friends in Cardston will be sorry to hear of the accidental breaking of one finger on the right hand when Mr. Brown was at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium recently. This followed an accident to his knee which confined him at home several days. We trust these hindrances will not seriously mitigate against his success in his final law examination to be taken next month.

Mr. O. F. Ursenbach of Lethbridge, who has been representing the Ellison Milling Co. for some time, gave Cardston a call last week and reports business as being very good for his company the past few months. "Our Best" Flour the staple brand of this well known company, making headway against all competitors. Mr. Ursenbach is a member of several of the Commercial Travellers' organizations and he states that they are making an organized effort over the U. S. and Canada concerning the high cost of living for the men who are forced by vocations to live at hotels and restaurants. As one of the best literary men in any of our Alberta Mormon communities, we hope to see our friend some day a shining light in the world of literature.

We will handle your old Cream Separator in exchange for a new one.—Cardston Implement Co.

Funeral Of The Infant Daughter

Of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walburger

During the early hours of Thursday, the 17th, inst. little Zelma, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Walburger passed away, age nine months. The death occurred at the home of Mrs. Margaret Bateman, the grandmother of the child. The cause is said to have been an abscess upon the brain.

The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Bateman, about 1.30 p. m. on Friday and was in charge of Bp C. W. Burt. Consoling remarks were made by Pres. Thos. Duce, Bp Ernest Parrish and his councillor S. B. Smith, of Mt. View, Pres. Wood and Bp. C. W. Burt in the order named.

The Cardston 1st Ward Choir was on hand and rendered very feelingly "I Need Thee Every Hour", "Consolation", and "Shall We Meet Beyond The River". Mrs. Leadbetter sang the solo "Your Sweet Little Rosebud Has Left You," assisted by the choir in the refrain.

The floral offerings were beautiful and were all procured locally. The "Globe" extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved in the loss of this their first and only child.

"Once To Every Woman"

At the Palace, Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14th.

The story deals with a small town girl who is discovered to have a voice. She is sent to Italy to study, wins her laurels at the Metropolitan Opera House and smiles condescendingly down on the world at her feet. How she learns that selfishness is the greatest blight on happiness, forms the theme of the story.

Miss Phillips' unusual versatility has wide scope in "Once to Every Woman." She depicts the role of a school girl, a student in Italy, and later a star of the Metropolitan. The production bears the stamp of Allen Holubar's masterful direction and is one of the most elaborately produced photodramas of the decade.
