Rubenstein, the Champion Fancy Skater, at the Skating Rink on Friday evening. Don't miss so grand a treat.

THE PAULSENS.—These famous skaters exhibited at Chatham on Saturday evening. Notwithstanding the bad state of the weather the rink was well filled, some six or seven hundred persons being present. Some Newcastle friends who were there speak very highly of the performances of these sons of Norway. They were present at the Camival here on Monday evening, but only as spectators.

THE ROADS—The Commissioner of Roads asks for tenders for clearing the roads etc., after-heavy storms—a good move. Private parties in town have this season frequently driven their snow-ploughs along some of the sidewalks and roads, for which they have the thanks of many who have been benefitted thereby.

MATTHEW LINDSAY, of the late firm of Logan & Lindsay, of St. John, an estimable citizen of that city, died on Saturday last, in his 50th year.

HEAVY STORM.—The heaviest snow storm of the season in the Commercial capital took place on Saturday last. Weather cold. An account of a meeting in Aluwick, letter from A. Adams. and several other atters in type, will appear next week.

A marvellous and beautiful skateris Mr. Rubenstein, and Montreal is proud of him.
