Carpentier's Deadly Right May Upset the Calculations Of The Fistic Experts

Now comes Jack Blumenfeld the English middleweight, with a story to the effect that Georges Carpentier flattened Joey Beckett with a right arm that had been lame for a week previous to the bout. Blumenfeld was one of Carpentier's sparring partners when Georges was training for the bout with Beckett. He says he was the only one able to go the full route of six weeks with the idol of France.

According to Blumenfeld Georges fell and injured the muscles of his right forearm more than a week before the Beckett fight. Of course, Carpentier kept the matter a secret, as knowledge of his opponents' injury would have strengthened Beckett's morale. That is the reason, Blumenfeld declares that Carpentier excluded the public from his training quarters during the time he was preparing for the battle.

Blumenfeld says that Beckett is not such a pop as people think but one tough bird. Stopping him with one punch was a wonderful performance, and proves beyond doubt that Carpentier can bring down any man he hits on the right spot.

Carpentier has the old-time idea about training for a fight. Unlike the no-decision, ten-round artists, who think the proverbial shave and haircut is all the preparation needed, Carpentier trains long and carefully. For an important battle he requires at least six weeks' steady work.

Blumenfeld says the Frenchman does not become peevish and irritable when on edge for a bout. He always is good natured and careful not to punish his sparring mates more than he can help.

Tunney Boosts Carpentier
Gene Tunney is another great admirer of Carpentier. Gene saw the Frenchman box several times in France and was greatly impressed with the form Georges displayed. Gene thinks that Carpentier's one-two punch is capable of stopping any man it lands on.

Carpentier is the first noted heavyweight since Peter Jackson to feature a straight right. Jackson drove his right hand straight from the shoulder, but he usually aimed at the body. Carpentier directs his blow to the jaw, and it is a shorter, snappier punch than the Jackson long-range drive.

Willie Ritchie's best punch was a straight right. Willie scored all his knockouts with that kind of a blow. But the Ritchie blow, like the famous Jackson wallop, was more of a long range affair.

Carpentier's blow is the Willie Lewis one-two brought to a high state of perfection. He steps in close before driving it across, the right following the left so fast that the two blows sound like one. Of course, it is

IF STRENGTH DECLINES AS AGE ADVANCES FOLLOW THIS SUGGESTION

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps your wife or sister. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and activity—she enjoyed life and imparted pleasure to the whole family; but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began, failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It's a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferrozone. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increasing appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fatten up the thinnest, most run-down woman you can think of. Take Ferrozone for lost color, for nervousness, for weakness—use it when run-down and feeling poorly—it will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health, than anything else. Just as good for men and children, too, because Ferrozone is harmless and safe, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from the Catarrh-ozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

the right that carries the real steam behind it. Carpentier's fists travel so fast that the eye can scarcely follow them and the double jar is what loses the work, according to the way Tunney describes it.

Most Dangerous Blow
Considering the tremendous force that can be put behind a straight right it is a remarkable thing that so few of our crack boxers pay attention to this blow. When timed correctly it is far more effective than a hook or swing, because it meets the object head on, as it were. There is nothing more disconcerting than to step into a punch that comes shooting straight across, and the jar of the blow is more than doubled because of the angle at which it strikes. In taking a swing or hook a clever boxer instinctively gives with the blow, swaying his head to one side enough to rob it of a great deal of its force. But when a straight right lands on a charging opponent there is no way of softening its effect.

Another advantage of the straight right is that it is much harder to block or duck than a swing. It travels such a short distance that it is only half the time on the way that a swing takes to reach its destination. A straight right requires a much smaller opening than a swinging blow. The slightest mistake on the part of an opponent is all that is required to open the way for its passage.

ELEVATOR BOYS QUIT AND MANY LATE TO LUNCH

NEW YORK, April 15—Hundreds of hungry people were late in getting to lunch yesterday when elevator operators in the fifty-four Woolworth buildings, the tallest in the world, went on strike. After tenants had waited half an hour rather than make the long descent to Broadway by the stairs, a few cars were run up by two women employes of the building and starters. Hundreds returning from lunch waited in the corridors while emergency service was being arranged. The strikers asked $33 a week. The operators have been receiving from $24 to $27 a week. Thomas J. McGill, president of the local elevator operators' union, said that the strike was unauthorized and that he had ordered the strikers back to work.

SWAYZE DECLARES RACE LAW VICIOUS

NIAGARA FALLS, ONT., April 16—C. F. Swayze, M.P.P. of this city is strongly opposed to the tax rate on race tracks of $10,000 a day, proposed by Peter Smith, provincial treasurer in the provincial house. "The principle of the measure is vicious and entirely wrong," declared Mr. Swayze, the whiff of the labor party. Labor members of the legislature indicate a decided opposition to the high rate of taxation as outlined in the budget speech of Peter Smith who expects to yield a revenue of $750,000 this year from that source.
