

THE HERALD

EVERY SATURDAY, CORNER QUEEN AND REGENT STREETS,

THE HERALD

FREDERICTON, FEBRUARY 2, 1895. THE SAME OLD DOSE.

The peculiarity of the Opposition mind was never better displayed than in the Assembly debate which closed last night with another wipe-out for the aggregation led by Dr. Stockton.

But it is not our purpose to follow the different speakers in the debate. It was idle and absurd for Dr. Stockton to ask the Assembly to pronounce on the suspension bridge business when the house is not in possession of one iota of the evidence taken in the investigation.

AFRAID TO FACE HIS CONSTITUENTS

The Liberals of New Brunswick have drawn first blood in the Dominion contest, which may now be regarded as fairly opened. The announcement is made that Hon. G. E. Foster will not seek reelection in Kings county, being unwilling to face certain defeat in his old constituency.

MOWATT ON TOP.

Since the general local elections in Ontario in June last there have been three local bye-elections in that province, and Sir Oliver Mowatt's party has won every one of them, redeeming the three seats from the Conservative opposition.

THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL has allowed the appeal of the Manitoba Roman Catholics which, to put it briefly, means that the Dominion government are possessed of power to grant the Roman Catholics of Manitoba remedial legislation for the support of their separate schools, abolished in 1890, when the Manitoba school act was passed, doing away with all but state schools.

SIX HUNDRED WOMEN APPEARED BEFORE THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE MAINE LEGISLATURE

Thursday afternoon, to plead for woman suffrage in municipal elections. It was the greatest concourse of femininity ever known in the state, and the state house was filled to overflowing by the throng.

THE CAB WHICH CONVEYED SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL TO THE STATION AT BELLEVILLE

Monday morning upset in a drift. Sir Mackenzie's head was slightly cut with the glass.

THE NOVA SCOTIA LEGISLATURE OPENED

Thursday and F. A. Laurence, of Truro, was elected Speaker.

HAZING IN TORONTO.

A Freshman Tells of an Extraordinary State of Affairs in Trinity College.

A startling revelation of affairs at Trinity College, Toronto, has been made and hazing is said to be carried on in that seat of learning to a disgraceful extent.

"Why didn't you punch his head?" asked the scribe, as the senior walked off. "And get the tar knocked out of me tonight," was the rejoinder. I guess you don't know Trinity. If I knocked that pup down do you know what would happen? I would be fired into a cold bath.

"How dare you call yourself by my name. Beg my pardon." I told him to get on a table and sing. I saw it was no use, there were a dozen of them, so I got up. They yanked the table and I came down hard and was told I was beaten drunk and was hustled some more.

"What is your name?" asked one. I told him. "You're a liar," he said, "that is my name. How dare you call yourself by my name. Beg my pardon." I told him to get on a table and sing. I saw it was no use, there were a dozen of them, so I got up.

THE AUTHORITIES OF TRINITY COLLEGE

say there is no truth in the hazing story. The dean of the college when seen said to a Star correspondent: "I may just as well say at the commencement that it was an indignant young freshman who first brought the story to my notice. He was indignant that such statements should be made regarding his seniors."

THE DEAN CONTINUED

"I can say the general feeling in the college between seniors and freshmen is of the friendliest character. I should be sorry to see the subject become one of general newspaper discussion, because it calculated to misguide and prejudice people against this university. It is hard to give a direct negative to the whole of the story, because it would seem to me, to have been compiled from anecdotes told in the corridors of Trinity for the last five years and not written from the statement of a student.

OF COURSE, IN TRINITY WE DO NOT

encourage tale bearing, but I am confident if there is no truth in the hazing story, I would have heard of them, and if any freshman were to make his grievances known, I am sure the whole opinion of the college would be against any such conduct as described. As a matter of fact the most friendly relations exist between the seniors and juniors."

Word has been received at Upper Mangrove that Wm. second son of the late John S. Brown of that place, and brother of the late Dr. T. Clowes Brown of this city, died suddenly at Mudge, New South Wales some time in October, 1894. The deceased was engaged in mining, and his death was occasioned by a fall. He and his brother John left Mangrove Aug. 3rd, 1892, when he was 26 years of age. They sailed from St. John in the brig Australia, direct for Australia, and were six months making the trip. Two brothers, Charles and Hanford, and one sister, with the brother with whom he lived, survive the deceased, who was unmarried.

The death occurred Thursday evening, of Mrs. George Thompson, at her home on Brunswick street, after quite a lengthy illness. Miss Miles, from Amherst, N. S., rendered her solo beautifully and was called for again and again, responding by singing "Supper-time" and "The Cows are in the Clover." Goverdale.

JAN. 20.—Not having seen any items in THE HERALD from this section for some time, your correspondent thought it best to drop a few lines that the outside world might know that we yet exist.

Our school has closed for the winter; whether it is the wish of the people we know not.

We have had a very pleasant winter so far, not very much snow and the roads are in fine condition.

Miss Sophy Jones, of Keswick is visiting friends here, the guest of John Orser. Mrs. Herbert Hanson is also spending some weeks with her father, at the same place as home for many months.

Mr. McKenny and Mr. Canada, of Millville, paid this place a short visit, the guests of C. Wallace.

Miss Edith Wallace, who has been spending a few weeks with friends in Caverhill, has returned home again.

There was quite a musical entertainment at John Orser's one evening this week; C. F. Jones, violin; Albert Jones, German accordion, and a blind lady from Nova Scotia, harp. There was quite a number present and all enjoyed themselves very much.

There are still lots of peddlers; the latest was F. Morgan from Caverhill, with a load of tea.

Charles Wallace had the misfortune to lose a fine hog last week.

A very pleasant party found their way into James Gow's camp a short time ago. Of course Charlie was along with his violin and cheered the boys by his music. The ladies think Mr. Gow lucky in finding such a jolly cove, who did his share of entertaining by supplying the hungry crowd with such good beans and afterwards some molasses candy. A very pleasant evening was passed, when the party returned home, feeling that there are worse places than a lumber camp, and wishing them every success.

GRIMM'S CAMP.

JAN. 22.—At present there is about two and a half feet of snow here, but we are nearly done taking out of the snow and will then commence hauling off the yards.

We have been favored with very good luck, no serious accidents to report. One man had the misfortune to give his knee a slight cut, but our worthy Dr. W. was on hand and one or two applications of his wonderful ki. ki. cure restored the wounded limb, and he is now able to be about his work as usual.

Two of our boys, thinking that there is no place like home, have departed to seek shelter under their mother's wings.

William, with his heavy weight of fourteen hundred, and two men besides himself, claiming he has handled one third of the lumber, and we presume he has.

The stumps scaler, C. Miles, made us a friendly call not long ago.

R. Blackmer, from Fredericton, was here a few nights ago with a fine display of jewelry. Some of the boys made themselves happy by purchasing a Waterbury. Our cove, who is a jolly good fellow, has hung his watch in a conspicuous place, so that every one possessing a Waterbury may correct his time at will.

Several caribou crossed the portage near our camp the other day, but the fine being in their favor, were let go scot free.

Judging from the amount of letters that are written here, some of the boys must have sweethearts at home.

For telling big ones, the boys think Ephraim claims the hat, and he is expected by spring to graduate with honors.

GASPER'S STATION.

JAN. 23.—The weather has been much milder than a rule this winter than last.

On Saturday we had quite a snow storm. The snow is not very deep this season, but is about sufficient for lumbering.

Coun. J. H. Washburn has been attending to his municipal duties at St. Andrews.

James Lynn, caretaker of the departmental buildings, has purchased from the bridge company, the Sills property on George street immediately below the Canada Express track for $1,000.

A. H. Conseau, M. P. P. for Digby, has been appointed a member of the Nova Scotia government in place of Hon. Colin McLeas, who resigned to run for parliament in Antigonish.

Ottawa has a sensation. Tuesday evening T. J. Watters, acting commissioner of customs, was arrested for misappropriating government funds to the extent of $348. He belongs to St. John.

New spring goods will soon arrive at Anderson & Walker's; be on the lookout for them.
