OVERWHELMINGLY FAVOR RECIPROCITY

Ottawa, Ont., April 4.—That the reciprocity movement has entirely taken the heart out of the Oppoistion was strikingly evidenced in the House of Commons today by the total collapse of the budget debate after some criticism, described by himself as "pin pricking," by Mr. Foster, following Mr. Fielding's great speech, showing a record surplus of thirty and a half millions for the past year. The Finance Minister announced that the bounties on steel and iron rods, which expires on July 1st next, would not be renewed. The Independent Labor Party, of Toronto, just reorganized on non-political lines, places itself on record at an enthusiastic meet-pact in entirety. Only two dissenting votes were recorded. Magnus Sinclair, well-known in the West as a labor organizer, declared that as a party the labor men would not be satisfied until Canada had free trade with the United States. Another delegate at the meeting stated that capitalistic corporations, who were opposing the agreement, were the people who were most anxious for free trade in labor. Some of Toronto's millionaires, who had denounced reciprocity, had hardly a Canadian in There is still talk of a re-organization of the Conservative party. In a published interview, Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary Ontario government, says Premier McBride, of British Columbia is a good fellow, but will not enter Federal politics as a rival of Mr Borden. Mr. Hanna admits that there is a feeling in some Conservative circles adverse to Mr. Borden.

The Toronto Globe announces that a systematic canvass of Ontario rural districts by a special representative shows that they are overwhelmingly in favor of free trade in natural products.
