The Unreasonable Husband.

By RUTH CAMERON.

To fall in love with and marry because the object of your love possesses a certain quality of character, and then to be unpleasantly surprised when that quality manifests itself, is one of the commonest of marital inconsistencies.

I am thinking just now particularly of the quality of intenseness, because a case where the husband fell in love with his wife because she was so intense about her enjoyment of things and her devotion to him, had greatly interested me.

That Was Why He Fell In Love With Her.

"She's so interested in everything she does," he used to say when he first met her. "Nothing half hearted about her. It's fun to take her anywhere because she's so enthusiastic."

And so they were married.

And by-and-by the intense little girl became an equally intense little mother.

She couldn't do too much for her children, couldn't guard their health too carefully, couldn't think of anything else. And as every intense emotion includes an equally intense capacity for worrying over its object, she couldn't keep from worrying about them.

Again, when bereavement came to her she grieved with an intensity that soon grew tiresome to her husband.

But He Didn't Want Her To Be Intense Over Everything.

"Why can't she take life more easily?" he said. Look at my brother's wife, she has six children and see how easily she takes them." And again, "Of course it's sad for her to love her mother, but she can't go on grieving forever. What's the sense?"

Poor man! I'm afraid he'll never realize that it isn't a question of sense at all but of something infinitely more powerful,—of human nature.

Mind you, I don't mean to say that she couldn't try to control some of the manifestations of her intensity. She could and she should. But I do say that the tendency is there and that he knew it when he married her and should have reckoned with it.

A Wise Husband.

This is what I once heard a very wise husband say to his wife.

"I don't see how I could have found a wife better suited to me all round than you."

"You might have found one who was more placid," said she, "and that would please you sometimes."

"Yes," said he, "sometimes, but if she were placid sometimes she would be placid from A-Z. I'd hate that."

Wise, wise young man,—truly "a Daniel come to judgment."

EVENINGS AT HOME.

I sit me down at close of day, to read a book by Bertha Clay, or Laura Libbey's worst; when wearied by the daily grind, for books that soothe the jaded mind I have a mighty thirst. So when I sit me down to read, I say, "Now I'll have peace indeed, and comfort six ells wide; I'll revel in the printed page, absorb the thoughts of hard and sage, and let the glad hours slide." But ere I've turned a dozen leaves, I'm thinking how the roof and eaves, demand the tinner's care; and how the carpenter must come, to fix the door that's out of plumb, and mend the cellar stair. I think about the coming spring, when wife and girl's will once more sing their song of Easter hats; I think of seeds that I must buy, to make the garden multiply, the beans and marrowfats. I think of bills that I must pay when comes the next collection day, I think of them and sigh; I think of how the price ascends on all the needed odds and ends, on rainment, shoes and pie. My book has fallen to the floor; I cannot read it any more; my thoughts are far astray; I do not care for idle tales when I must raise the price of nails and gasoline and hay.

Everyday Etiquette.

"Should I shake hands when presented to a woman?" inquired Henry.

"When calling a man does not offer his hand first, but waits for the initiation to come from his hostess," advised his father.

The Mallard Fund

Collected Through Appeal by Rev. Dr. W. P. Kitchin, St. Joseph's Church.

The case of Thomas Malard and his family is lamentable, in a few minutes they lost the toil and savings of a lifetime; besides there are two afflicted and sick boys in the family. They are really deserving of charity.

"JUST THE SAME."

How often does your friend ask you "How are you feeling?" and your answer is: "Just the same, my cough is not one bit better." Don't you think that you are very foolish in allowing this nasty cough and cold hang on to you for such a long time?

If you have contracted a cough or cold in some way or other, try the following:—Mix equal parts of Stafford's Liniment and Camphorated Oil together and apply to the neck and chest, rubbing it in well every time.

Take from one to two teaspoonfuls of Stafford's Phoratone Cough and Cold Cure every two hours.

The above treatment has been found beneficial hundreds of times.

You can obtain these preparations from

"STAFFORD'S PHARMACY," Duckworth Street.
"STAFFORD'S DRUG STORE," Theatre Hill.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPHTHERIA.

First Sealing Arrivals Expected

Sweepstake dabblers who are interested in the Halifax sealers Sable I. and Seal, are now feeling delighted over their chances. According to the latest reports from them, both ships are practically loaded by this time, and it would not be unreasonable to expect them here to-morrow sometime. In any case, we understand, the Sable I. and Seal received orders at the outset of the voyage not to remain out longer than the 24th inst., as they can be employed, yielding handsome profits, bringing freights from Halifax to this port. At present at the South Side of the harbour preparations are being finalized to receive the catch of the fleet.

Here and There.

LOST FINE HORSE. — Cabman Kelly lost a fine horse last night through breaking one of its legs.

Stafford's Liniment cures Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuralgia and all Aches and Pains.

TO TRY FOR COD.—A number of Battery fishermen are preparing for a try-out on the fishing grounds as soon as the ice moves off the coast.

RAILWAY ENQUIRY.— A further enquiry into the railway catastrophe was held at the Magistrate's Office yesterday evening. Mailman Thistle and Roadmaster Connors were sworn in turn.

Received a shipment of Scotch Coopers' Tools. BOWRING BROS., Ltd., Hardware Dept.

BIG SHIPMENT OF LIMESTONE. A big shipment of limestone reached Grand Falls a few days ago from the Limestone Quarry, West Coast. We understand this is only a portion of a large quantity required by the Anglo Newfoundland Development Co

STOMACH TROUBLES. — Stafford's Prescription "A" cures Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Price 25 and 50c. bottle. Postage 5 and 10c. extra.

YESTERDAY'S RAINSTORM— The heavy rain which swept over the city yesterday caused considerable damage to property along New Gower Street and dwelling houses adjoining thereto. Cellars and ground floors were badly flooded, forcing the occupants to remove their belongings up stairs. Miniature streams from Theatre Hill, Carter's Hill and Lime Street came rushing down Adelaide Street to Water Street bringing several tons of earth and gravel in their trail.

FIRE COMPANIES ON WILD GOOSE CHASE.—In response to an alarm from box 221, the Central and Eastern Fire Companies were called out to Rawlins' Cross at 7 o'clock last evening. Their presence in the neighbourhood, however, was more or less an attraction and surprise. The firemen found that the ringing in of the alarm was a "slight mishap" on the part of a woman, who evidently became excited on seeing a reflection in the window of Rennie's store made by the raising of a damper from a stove therein.

Handy to have about the House

You never know when some one of the family will get a very serious burn, and a serious burn is a painful, annoying experience.

'Nyal's Handy Ointment' applied right away will soothe that pain and take the fire out.

Keep Nyal's Handy Ointment on hand—you'll find it a "friend indeed."

It possesses soothing and softening as well as healing properties—a grateful antiseptic application for any painful sore.

It is an efficient healer of old running sores, ulcers, "bad legs," and in fact any sore of any kind.

Coming in a tube, the unused portion is always clean and fresh. A generous package for fifty cents.
