LASSIGNY CAPTURED.

PARIS, Aug. 21.
Lassigny has been captured by the French forces, whose lines have reached the outskirts of Chiry Oisecamp, southwest of Noyon. The official statement making the announcement also says that twenty villages have been liberated since yesterday, and the French have advanced about five miles at certain points. The text of the statement says: Between the Matz and Oise the enemy, despite his resistance, gave way under the energetic thrust of our troops, and Lassigny fell into our hands. Further south we gained a footing on Piemont and occupied Orvan woods. We carried our lines to the outskirts of Chiry Oisecamp and east of the Oise our troops continued their success during the course of the day. On the left Carlepont Wood fell into our hands, and we reached the Oise to the east of Noyon between Sempligny and Pontoise. Further east we crossed the road between Noyon and Elancourt and advanced our lines to the outskirts of St. Aubin. Since yesterday we have liberated about twenty villages and advanced eight kilometres on a certain front.

MORE PRISONERS.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 21. (By the A.P.)—On the right wing of the battlefield, east of the Oise, the French rushed their attack vigorously during the morning, taking Laval and arriving at the edge of Pommiers, which lies about two miles northwest of St. Aubin. Several thousand more prisoners have been taken, one army corps capturing 1,600.
This advance brings the French troops to the plateau north of the Aisne, which will facilitate further operations by General Mangin's right.

FRENCH PROGRESS.

PARIS, Aug. 21.
The manoeuvre of the French force east of the Oise to-day was conducted with precision and speed. The attack was launched at 7.10 o'clock this morning, after a violent artillery preparation. At 8.45 batteries of 75s on the heels of the infantry advanced four kilometres over the Vesme ridge. At 9 o'clock the French right had advanced to Tarteries heights, and at 9.40 the left was at Lombay.
The enemy losses in the fighting are said to have been exceptionally heavy.
One French division alone captured 1,800 prisoners. The advance continues over a rolling country, where rapid progress ordinarily is difficult.

THE NEW ATTACK.

LONDON, Aug. 21.
While the width of the attacking front is not clearly defined, a wide front probably would include a line from the Ancre to the Scarpe, about 15 miles. There has not been any heavy fighting recently on the line north of the front between Beaumont Hamel and Bucquoy. There has been more or less raiding activity. However, the battlefront from north of the Ancre to north of Lens has not seen as great a change as other sectors between Ypres and Rheims since the beginning of the German offensive on March 21st. In making an attack here it would appear that Marshal Foch is striving to break the old German line in the Arras area. Any considerable forward movement here would menace the German position north and south for many miles. Strategically, a blow here would seem to be a companion to the French offensive south of the Oise, and a strong attempt to force the Germans to retire all along the line.

HAIG'S OFFENSIVE.

LONDON, Aug. 21.
(By the A.P.)—Field Marshal Haig this morning launched an offensive on a front of about ten thousand yards.
The high country between Adinifer and Moynville was the northern zone of attack and Pusieux au Mont the southern landmark of the front. The enemy here lately has been withdrawing in order to increase the depth of his defences.

MANY TOWNS TAKEN.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Aug. 21.—(By the A.P.)—In the first hour of the offensive begun this morning by Field Marshal Haig the British troops captured the towns of Ablesseville, Beaucourt and Moyenville. The British attacked on a front of 15 miles between Arras and Albert. The attacks extended from the north of Moynville. Some German field guns and two hundred prisoners had been taken in the British drive at an early hour. All the German outposts and positions along the important Draucourt Ridge between Koudon and the Locs Hospice have been attacked by the British. The results so far is not known. Courcelles and Achilleville were also captured in the British drive.

AN APOLOGY—Oh, no! No apology is needed for Marshal's Winsa, etc.
They are guaranteed by the manufacturers, who also hold themselves responsible for the good quality of their products. Two shipments are expected daily. For sale at advertised prices.—$1.25 and 1.00
