Yours very truly, S. J. WHELAN. St. John's, Dec. 13, 1919.

To the Editor Advocate:

Rev. Dr. Whelan

Dear Sir.—Had you not introduced ew issues into your editorial comment on my letter of Nov. 29th, probably I would not trouble you further. For despite your statement that you did not withdraw nor apologize, I con-

Your original statement was, "we have warned the people against the improper spending of the public monies by any others than the duly elected Road Boards." That statement, coupled with other comments in your editorial, I understood, charged me with the improper spending of public monies, and thereby infringing on what you consider to be the special privilege of the Road Boards-"the proper spending" you meant "impropagainst me of improperly spending thdraw by implying that there was candidate—if I had done so since you | Church in July 1918. Your reference, however, to Mr. Grimes and myself demands a rejoinder.

You state that I will admit that while Mr. George Grimes was member for Port de Grave "there were no allocations made except to the Road Boards." I shall, Sir, make no such admission. I know that "while Mr. leorge Grimes was member for Port de Grave" that monies were taken from a legally elected Road Board and given to people to expend who had no legal standing whatever under the "Local Affairs Act." You further state "that Mr. Grimes had on more than one occasion firmly pointed out even to the Reverend gentleman himself, that the Road monies would be spent only through the proper channel." This I also refuse to admit. Mr. Grimes did not consistently be could not, point this out to me. For I know, and he knew that I knew that he was spending money, and not special grant either, but ordinary annual grant, to people to expend, who had no legal standing under the "Local Affairs Act." And this money was taken from a Road Board legally elected under the same

Rivals of Solomon.

Solomon in his wisdom is rivalled by the council of elders of Sibi in Seluchistan, one of whose decisions

A certain spiritual teacher instructed a pupil in an incantation which was to preserve him for ever from any danger arising from snake-bite. The pupil, in perfect confidence, took hold of a snake, was bitten, and died.

The question arose, what offence, if any, had the holy man committed The council of elders, after full deliberation, arrived at the conclusion that the muliah had "acted foolishly in taking money for the incantation for the spell loses its power if it is sold for money"; also, he erred, as he had no regard for the fact "that some snakes do not obey incantations, and that people who catch hold of Hennessy street, in the death, as the snakes usually die of snake-bite." result of a bry severe cold, of his They thought that the vendor of young wife. "The Empty Quarter."

An English traveller has recently visited a little known part of Arabia called "the empty quarter." It is a sand waste; and a local legend says that it was overwhelmed by hot sand storms because a king long ago lived there in luxury with two thousand wives and a guard of two thousand warriors, and God sent destruction upon him as a sign of His displeasure.

Possibly this story had its origin in a Biblical incident of the East, that has passed down from family to family.
